Yankees Walk Off With First Game by Score of 2 to 1 in Pitchers' Battle-Danford Makes Costly Error in the Eighth, Letting in Winning Counter.

of baseball without obtaining a run in their last three appearances at Tecumseh park, "Doc." Reisling's pennant charmers went out in the ninth inning of yesterday's game with Erie, and collected one tally at the urgent request of the crowd. The effort was a highly exciting one, and would have been a little more satisfying from a local standpoint had it not been for the fact that in the seventh and eighth frames of the same pastime the Yankees turned the same trick, thus giving them a 2 to 1 margin thus giving them a 2 to 1 margin on the homesters in the opening game of the series.
Another Pitchers' Battle.

it has managed to lose them all.

Narrowly Escaped a Shut-out.

The fact that London got a run in he ninth frame is important in that it upsets the recently-formed opinion of local fans that the Indians were unable to score on the home premises. How-ever, now that they have managed to get one run in twenty-eight innings, the outlook is more cheerful. If we were uch of a statistician we might be able prove that, by keeping up such a dizzy gait, they may be able to delight the fans by winning a game a few days before Christmas or thereabouts if the league could be conveniently continued that long.

Locals Started Late. But to get back to yesterday s game. was a real tight affair, and anybody's hattle until the last man was out. The Lordon team started in roo late, that was all. Up to the eighth inning the locals had only made two hits off Dorbeck, but when the Yankees succeeded in putting a couple of runs across and all ting a couple of runs across, and all chance of London winning just about departed, they came to life, and crowded the final spasms with excitement. Failure to deliver in a pinch was largely responsible for their inability to score. Dorbeck was pitching good ball though, and getting grand support, so that it was only at scattered intervals that an opportunity to score came. For the first seven spasms the Reisling gang played as though there was a rule in the league preventing them When they managed to from scoring. When they managed to land on the pill for a safe drive, it was always after two men were out. Time and again they took a nice punch at the ball, and hit it right into somebody's waiting hards just when a somebody's waiting hards just when a somebody swaiting hards just when a somebody swaiting hards just when a somebody is waiting the some and a some a some and a some a so ing hands just when a safe wallop was needed most.

Danford's Boot Costly One.

It was Probable float It was Beebe's first game since a week ago Monday, and he pitched fine ball. Had the team been doing any kind of behind him he would have won. Jack Danford made the only error of the game, and it was practically responsible for the defeat, as it let in the winning luck than timely hitting or good playing. In the seventh inning, Dunn got a hit on a ball that bounded over Beebe's shoulder, the London pitcher not being able to field it, owing to the sun getting into his eyes. Kelly Harris then hit one to left field, that Joe Munn misjudged, and it went for two sacks, Dunn scoring. In the eighth, Dorbeck fanned, but Dawson was passed. Gygli singled to centre, Dawson being held at second. Linneborn Linnebor run. Both Erie runs were due more to luck than timely hitting or good playing.

gathered in Scott's foul, but Dunn poled After providing twenty-seven innings Munn let if get past him, but Dawson

In London's eighth, after Danford and Another Pitchers' Battle.

It was another of those pitchers' battles which the London club has frequently participated in of late, but seldom won. "Tony" Dorbeck, the Erie southpaw, and Ben Beebe, the local pill peddlar, dueled along for eight innings, then Ben was pulled, so that "Doc." could infect a pinch hitter into the game in the person of Jack Snyder. This accounted for "Cuz" Hammond's appearance in the box in the ninth, Mr. Snyder being a catcher, and therefore not equal to the task of substituting for Beebe other than at bat. As you have learned above, Mr. Dorbeck pulled a balk, a minute later, and Reidy went to second. Any kind of a hit would have scored him, and with only one gone, it looked as if the score might be tied. Dorbeck would not give Munn invelgled into in the past week, and it has managed to lose them all. Snyder had struck out, Linneborn got a double to right, but Whiteraft could only send up a high fly to left. In the ninth, Dorbeck got into a peck of trouble, and he was certainly lucky to get out of it with only one run being scored. Lamy opened the inning by smashing a double to left. Bierbauer beat out an infield hit, Lamy taking third. He scored when Reidy hit a fast one that Dorbeck deflected into Wiltse's hands, the latter having just time to force Bierbauer at second. Dorbeck pulled a balk a minute later, and Reidy went to second. Any kind of hit would have scored him, and with only one gone, it looked as if the score might be tied. Dorbeck would not give Munn a chance to hit, but walked him. Mullin tried to bunt, but got into a hole on the first two balls pitched, and the next one he hit at Dorbeck who knocked it down in time to force Reidy at third. Danford then came up and skled the first ball pitched to Behan, who retired the side.

Freeman Was Good.

The game marked the first appearance out at first by beautiful throws. Score:

The game marked the first appearance here of "Buck" Freeman, the umpire. "Buck" handled the game fine, and his decisions were good. He is one of the best umps. seen here this season.

Both teams pulled off some nice fielding stunts, Behan shining for the visitors, while Whitcraft handled himself nicely for London. His catch of McNeal's foul near the score board in the ninth, was the finest piece of work during the afteroon. Mike Mullin also had a good day Every man on the London team had at least one put-out. Hammond and Snyder only made a brief appearance, so hardly count. ERIE.

OTTAWA TAKES LEAD BY BEATING BRANTS

Pitcher Aster Was Given an Unmerciful Lacing-Rath Had Bad Day at Third Base.

OTTAWA, June 11. - The Ottawa Senators returned home with their war clubs this afternoon and gave Brantford an upmerciful lacing, 11 to 5. Pitcher Asher being bombarded for 17 safeties. With rocky support behind him in the bargain. the large of the of the time.

Peterson was on the rubber for Ottawa BELTING'S FINE PITCHING champions had things their own way most and had an abundance of smoke. After his team had acquired ten runs for him, he eased off in the eighth, and two doubles and a triple permitted the visitors to get three runs over. It was a real ball game till Ottawa's sixth, when eleven men faced Asher, Two were out before a run tired seven crossed the plate. Artic Lage secured two hits in the one inning. Third Baseman Roth had a bad day, and should have retired the side in the sixth, but threw to the scoreboard after fielding Bullock's grounder, seven runs counting Bullock's grounder, seven runs counting thereafter.

The champions jumped in the lead again as a result of London's defeat by Erie.

TIGERS WIN 2 TO 1

"Cuz" Hammond will come back at the Erie aggregation at Tecumseh Park today, while Morse is the probable selection of Manager Gygli, of the Yankees. Hammond pitched one inning against the invaders yesterday, and if he works today like he did that inning he should have no trouble pulling out a win, providing this London team canput a few runs under him.

Morse is one of Erie's best twirlers, so that the locals have their work cut out for them in taking the second game. The London club is pretty near due to spring a batting bee at Tecumseh Park, the clubs' recent performances there being conspicuous by a lack of hitting.

Baker May Be Signed Up.

Bill Baker, the local boy, who was released at the first of the week by St. Thomas, is working out with the London club and he will likely be signed up. Manager Reisling is of the opinion that Baker will make a good pitcher under the right kind of coaching, and for nearly an hour yesterday he was instructing "Wild Bill" in the art of hursting the nearly an hour yesterday he was instructing "Wild Bill" in the art of hursting the deceptive pill. The local team is not in any need of pitchers at the present time, but it is likely an effort will be made to keep a string on Baker.

London Plays in Eric Sunday.

The London and Eric clubs will be the eath other of the next five or six days, the team leaving here Saturday here salurday ingint for Erie, where games will be played Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. As both clubs are only a fraction from the top of the league, the series will be an important one.
