

Preserving Time

Choose your sugar as carefully as you do your fruits. LANTIC Sugar makes clear jellies and perfect preserves because it is pure cane sugar, granulated extra fine and is kept clean and pure by the packages. 2 lb. and 5 lb. cartons and 10 lb. and 20 lb. bags. 100 lb. bags coarser granulation. Weight guaranteed. Buy in original packages and look for the LANTIC Red Ball on each package.

Lantic Sugar

Atlantic Sugar Refineries Limited, ST. JOHN, N.B.

PROFESSIONAL

PETER H. BLYTH
ARCHITECT
P. O. Box 111
McDONALD BUILDING

P. O. LeBANS
GENERAL CARRIAGE REPAIRS

A few sleighs on hand will be sold cheap for CASH.

All kinds of sleighs made to order from a baby sleigh to a four horse logging sleigh

All sizes chain always in stock

Spring Wagon and Carriage stock daily expected.

General Repairs and Painting Heavy or light sleighs built to order at short notice.

Don't Forget The Place.

P. O. LeBANS

NEAR THE SUBWAY

LIVERY STABLE

I have recently added new equipment to my livery stable and am ready for the summer business.

Commercial travellers and others driven to any section of the surrounding country.

H. P. DOYLE

Livery Stable

Opposite St. Louis Hotel.

SOLE OPENING TIN

Best Polish In The Best Box

PINCH IT TO OPEN

PINCH IT TO CLOSE

THAT'S ALL

It's everywhere

Everett & Barron Co.

AMHERST, N.S.

MAKERS OF U. N. O. POLISH

Auto Livery

I will be prepared to accommodate parties desiring to go to any part of the hour or day, for trips about town or country.

Apply

J. W. ROY

PROMPT SHIPMENTS

Bologna
Ham and Bacon,
Mince Meat
Pig Feet, keg and 1-2 bbls.
Sausages 1-2 bbls and Tiesces.

BEST QUANTITY AT CLOSE PRICES

John Hopkins

ST. JOHN, N.B.

A. & A. ARSENEAU

Modern Heating and Plumbing

Estimates Given, Work the Best

PRICES MODERATE

A share of the trade is solicited

Rear of Wallace Garage

Water Street

Livery Stable

Good Horses and Comfortable

Carriages

Travellers supplied with rigs for

Cape Coast Trip and driven to any part of the country. Terms reasonable.

JOHN TENNIER

Phone 173 Water Street

The First Week

In September

is the beginning of our busy season, but you had better not wait until then.

Our classes have been continued

all summer, and you can enter at any time.

Catalogue containing tuition rates and courses of study mailed to any address.

S. KERR

Principal

FREDERICTON

BUSINESS COLLEGE

WILL OPEN ITS

FALL TERM

WEDNESDAY

SEPTEMBER 1

Now is the time to write for full particulars.

Address: 100 St. John Street

W. J. OSBORN

Principal

MON FALL TERM

opens on Monday, August 23rd.

Our equipment has been improved and our courses of study will be of the highest order.

Write for catalogue.

BUSINESS COLLEGE

Director of Specialized

Education

GEO. J. SCHMIDT

Principal

Moncton, N.B.

CLASSIFIED

Advertisements under this head are charged for at the rate of a cent a word a week. Minimum charge 25c.

FOR SALE
Registered Holstein Bull calves from three to eight weeks old, sired by such bulls as Maple Grove Merceda No. 11727 and Maple Grove Pontiac No. 20422 which is a son of the great King Lyons Hengerveld No. 11816. For further information write HENRY MCINTYRE, Campbellton, N.B., Box 100, Campbellton.

TO RENT
A new upright piano, would prefer to have it with some party thinking of purchasing one. A big bargain to any wanting a piano. For particulars apply at once "Piano" care Graphic.

WANTED
A first or second class teacher holding a New Brunswick Valid license to teach for the ensuing term at Flatland. Apply to CHAS. G. ARCHIBALD, Secretary of School Trustees, Flatland, Rest. Co., N.B. Aug. 19-21 ins.

WANTED
A fresh milk cow. MRS. S. BROCKET, Matapedia Aug. 19-21 ins.

FOR SALE
or to rent: Easy payments: Mason & Rish Square Piano. Apply A. G. Aug. 19-21 ins. at this Office.

WANTED
Second class female teacher for District No. 8, New Brandon. Apply stating salary to W. R. RICHIE, Sec. of Trustees, New Brandon, Glo. Co. Aug. 19-21 ins.

WANTED
A second class female teacher for District Number 2, Tide Head. Apply stating salary to S. H. GERRARD, Sec. School Trustees, Tide Head, N.B. Aug. 19-21 ins.

WANTED
A teacher with an Elementary diploma, capable of teaching English and French for the Catholic School Municipality of York Gaspé. Apply stating salary required to Secretary Treasurer, Gaspé Harbour. Aug. 19-21 ins.

FOR SALE
About 1500 feet of best well casing, about 1200 feet of same never been used but all in good condition with couplings and rings to protect the threads, ready to be put in the foot well casing. 50 pounds to the foot. Also three extra heavy wire rope blocks, 1, 2 and 3 sheaves of 18 inch together with heavy swivel hook for handling heavy weights. Also complete outfit of drilling tools for 6 and 8 inch. Will be sold at a very reasonable price delivered on cars. Apply S. L. this office. Aug. 19-21 ins.

TEACHER WANTED
Female teacher for Sydenham South (discontinued) School. No diploma necessary. Apply stating salary to JOHN MINCHINGTON, Montreal, Quebec, Gaspé Co. Que. July 29-31 ins.

TEACHER WANTED
A second class female teacher for Upper Glouchester. Term commencing Sept. 1st 1915. Apply stating salary to JOHN WATSON, Glouchester, N.B. July 29-31 ins.

FOR SALE
Any one needing good and hard for concrete work and plastering, at lowest possible prices, apply to C. T. MAJOR, Ramsay Street, Phone 161-2, June 2nd-3 mos.

TO LET
A complete flat, consisting of five rooms and large hall, bath and toilet. Housed by proprietor with hot water. Apply to J. J. GIBLIN, 114 St. John Street, Campbellton, N.B. June 12-14 ins.

During the past year an passenger was killed in a train accident on the Southern Railway, which carried, during that time, over 14,000,000 passengers. The thousands of the South are making great strides in increasing their provisions for the safety of passengers and the increase of operating efficiency.

W. G. T. U.
This department is conducted by the Local Union, and is under the charge of an editor appointed by them. This Editor assumes the responsibility for the statements and articles which appear in this column.

THE TREACHEROUS KISS.
To use a kiss in the ministry of betrayal is like using a sacramental cup to poison a friend. The very worst form of devilry is that which garbs itself in the robes of an angel of light. Evil which wears the garb of goodness is sufficiently repulsive, but it is not nearly so repulsive as when it counterfeits goodness, and decks itself in adornments stolen from the wardrobe of virtue. If betrayal comes with a curse and a frown we know how to interpret its approach; but when it comes with smiles and kisses it can deceive the very elect. This kiss of Judas wounded the Lord far more deeply than did the nails which fastened Him to the cross.

And we, too, can do our evil behind appearance of virtue. We can plan mischief on our knees. We can appear unto men to pray while all the time we may be busy hatching schemes to wrong our brother. We can even join the Lord's holy church for a badge of respectability. Our membership appears to throw the light of sanctity over our life, and the soft and mellow beams become a kind of screen behind which we can engage in questionable deeds. "Oh, she is a member of the church and it must be all right." And this does mischief as at a screen instead of being a lucid transparency through which we can see into the deepest depths of the consecrated soul. Yes, we can betray the Lord with a kiss.

Let us beware of religious cloaks. Let us beware of borrowing the livery of the saints to hide the devices of the sinner. If we are going to betray the Lord let us do it openly, and not, by assuming the mood and manners of a friend. But why betray the great Friend who sticks closer than a brother? Let us rather pledge Him a deeper fealty in ceaseless service and sacrifice.—J. H. JOWETT.

FORGIVENESS.
Nothing is harder than to forgive a malicious wrong, a harm done us in a matter where we know we were right.

Sir Wilfrid was an English baron, widely known as a leader of social life, and a man of great personal dignity and force of character. Having been a distinguished chief justice of the Court of Common Pleas, he was often consulted by friends as to perplexing social questions.

On one occasion, a statesman came to him in great excitement over an injury just inflicted on him. He told the story with warmth, and used strong epithets in describing the malice which had inflicted the wrong.

"Is not my indignation righteous?" he asked impetuously. "Will it not be mainly to resent such an injury?"

"Yes," was the calm reply. "It will be mainly to resent it, but it will be good to forgive it."

The answer was so unexpected and so convincing that the statesman had not another word to say. He afterwards confessed to a friend that these words caused his anger to suddenly depart, leaving him a different and a better man.—E. J.

TRUE SUCCESS.
He kept his soul unspotted.

As he went upon his way,

And he tried to do some service

For God's people day by day.

He had time to cheer the doubter,

Whom complained that hope was dead;

He had time to help the cripple

When the way was rough ahead;

He had time to guard the orphan, and one day, well satisfied,

With the talents God had given him,

He closed his eyes and died.

He had time to see the beauty

That the Lord spread all around;

He had time to hear the music

In the shells the children found;

He had time to keep repeating

As he bravely worked away:

It is splendid to be living

In the splendid world today!

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his

pockets when he died.

But the angels—the angels that hurry

After golden gates are shut—

That he never had succeeded

When the clock lay over his head

And he died—He was a failure,

they compassionately sighed,

For the man had little money in his