DR. WASHINGTON, 78 McCaul-st., Toronto:

Dear Sir,—I am glad to be able to inform you that my daughter is quite well again. W. H. Storey, glove manufacturer, of Acton, Ont., cured over two years of obstinate catarrh. otal, cured over two years of obsinate catarra.

DR. Washington, 78 McCaul-st., Toronto:
Dear Sir,—I am repeatedly asked orally and by letter, as to your treatment of catarra (owing to my wife having been cured by you two years ago) and as to the permanency of the cure. To all such enquirers I feel pleased to say that you cured me of the most stubborn case of catarra after I had been treated by several physicians of note without any beneficial results. I am entirely well and have been so ever since, and I cannot do less than tender you my gratitude for what you have accomplished in my case and hope you will be the means of benefitting others. With kind regards, I am yours truly. W. H. STOREY.
