In Memoriam

Lines in memory of Edith Purdy, Bear River, who died April 4th, 1914, aged eight years.
Eight short years the Father lent us
From the garden of His love,
A fragrant blossom full of promise,
Now it blooms for Him above.
Without warning came the message
From an angel passing by,
"Little sister, thou art wanted
In the Father's home on high."
Sadly! sadly! low we laid her
On the hill side, beneath the green,
And her smiling face will never
In our home again be seen.
Years will pass, but still we'll miss her,
Still our hearts will throbb with pain,
For the sunshine of her presence
Just to hear her voice again.
But through tears our faith beholds her
In the city of delight;
Where the crystal river never
Bears our loved ones out of sight.
Gentle Edith, may the angels
Cherish thee with loving care.
May you grow a stately flower
In His garden bright and fair.
Though in the home your place is vacant,
May your spirit sweet and pure
Hover round us on life's pathway
Till we rest in Heaven secure.
Till the morning breaks in splendor,
And the shadows flee away,
Then with rapturous joy we'll greet
Thee to spend eternal day.
