Mr. Abe Orpen, 60 Bay street, Toronto, will execute commissions on all American races.

DURING the summer of 1863, while the hospitals at Canton, Miss., were crowded with sick and wounded soldiers, the ladies visited them daily, carrying with them delicacies of every kind, and did all they could to cheer and comfort the suffering. On one occasion a pretty miss of sixteen was distributing flowers and speaking gentle words of encouragement to those around her, when she overheard a soldier exclaim: "Oh, my Lord! Stepping to his bedside to rebuke him for his profanity, she remarked: "Didn't I hear you call on the name of the Lord? I am one of his daughters. Is there anything I can ask him for you?" Looking up into her bright, sweet face, he replied: "I don't know but what there is." "Well," said she, "What is it?" Raising his eyes to hers and extending his hand, he said: "Please ask him to make me his son-in-law."—Detroit Free Press.
