BRIC-A-BRAC

PERSONAL REMINISCENCES BY

Thomas Moore and William Jerdan.

With Portraits in outline by Maclise, from the Fraser Gallery, of Moore, Jerdan, Sco.t, and Hogg. 1 vol., square 12mo..... $1.50

Moore is one of the .nost prominent and interesting characters in the literary history of the last century; but his Life, Memoirs, and Correspondence, by Lord John Russell, has been so long out of print as to be virtually a sealed book to American readers. Mr. Stoddard has carefully gleaned from this volume, which is one of the most famous and popular of its class, all the salient anecdotes, and he has put with it a careful condensation of the Reminiscences of William Jerdan, who was for forty years editor of the *Litera*ry Gasette, and was thus brought into more or less intimate contact with all the prominent authors and writers of his day. The anecdotes and reminiscences, which he tells with such skill, are many of them entirely new to American readers, since his life was novor reprinted in this country.

EPOCHS OF HISTORY.

The French Revolution and First Empire.

By WILLIAM O'CONNOR MOBRIS, Sometime Scholar of Oriel College, Oxford,

With an Appendix indicating a course of reading and of study, by

Hon. ANDREW D. WHITE, LL.D.,

President of Cornell University, 1thacs.

One volume, with Maps......$1.00

A romantic, and indeed a tragic, interest attaches to the history of the French Revolution. The epoch which it covers is one of the most clearly marked and most momentous in modern times. Mr. Morris sims to give in exact outline the great features of this period of trouble and of war, extending from 1769 to 1815, placing events in their true proportions, and ex pressing opinions which must be endorsed as correct and moderate. A clearer and more accurate idea of the French Revolution may be gained from this manual than it is possible to derive from any of the more ambitious works which cover this same period. President White's Appendix embedies the results of a careful study of this period, and adds materially to the value and serviceability of the volume.

The following volumes are now ready in this valuable series:

I. THE ERA OF THE PROTESTANT REVOLU-TION. By P. Seebohm. A new Edition, with an Appendix by Prof. G. P. Fisher of Yale College, on the Literature of the Subject.

II. THE CRUSADES. By the Rev. G. W. Cox. III. THE THIRTY YEARS' WAR-1618-1618. By

Samuel-Rawson Gardiner.

THE HOUSES OF LANCASTER AND WITH THE CONQUEST AND LOSS OF FRANCE By James Gairdner.
