

graceful girl in the third picture was typical of Autumn. Around the pictures are grouped the monthly calendars, tied together by ribbons.

This attractive calendar and a full prospectus for 1895 will be sent free upon application, to any one considering a subscription to THE COMPANION. From no other paper can so much entertainment and instruction be obtained for so little money (only $1.75 a year). If you subscribe now you will receive the paper until January 1, 1895 and for a full year from that date, including the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
Boston, Mass.

AGE IMPROVES IT.—THE YOUTH'S COMPANION is soon to enter upon its sixty-ninth year of publication, and as one says who has been a constant reader of its columns for more than thirty years, "It has steadily improved year by year." Its articles to day cover the whole field of life and experience, furnishing a vast amount of valuable and entertaining reading of a character not found elsewhere, and of so great a variety that THE COMPANION interests alike each member of the family.

The prospectus for the volume of 1895 announces an unusual array of attractions; fourteen serial stories, a wealth of short stories, anecdotes, humorous sketches, adventures, science and home articles, timely editorials on all important questions, and more than two hundred original poems of the highest class.

Full prospectus and specimen copies sent free on application. New subscribers who send $1.75 now will receive the paper free to January 1, 1895, and one year from that date. It comes every week. Finely illustrated.

THE TREASURY OF RELIGIOUS THOUGHT for December closes the year with a full number. Rev. J. E. Cummings, late of Boise City, Idaho, is the preacher of the initial sermon on Anchors of the Soul, and his likeness is the frontispiece, and there is a sketch of his life and a picture of the church built in Boise City during his brief pastorate before he was called away to Rockwell City, Iowa. The sermon on God in the Soul of Every Man, by Dr. O. P. Gifford, of Buffalo, is full of his characteristic and scholarly eloquence. Dr. Gregg, of Brooklyn, gives the second of his sermons on Temple Beauty, illustrated by an engraving of the Fahys Memorial Window, in Lafayette Avenue Church. The Close and Opening of the Year contains a sermon on Burying the Old Year, by the Rev. Franklin Noble, D. D. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst appears in a sermon on Pharisees of Society. Rev. Dr. Burdett Hart gives his fourth essay on Presidents of Yale; and Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler his third article on Elements of Pulpit Power. Prof. George H. Schodde furnishes an interesting article on Findings in Early Christian Literature; and Rev. Mr. Jenanjan gives an account of modern Tarsus, with a fine view of the city, made for the TREASURY, from a recent photograph. The editorial and minor departments of the magazine are maintained with the usual fulness.

Annual subscription $2.50. Clergymen, $2. Single copies, 25 cents.

For fifty years The Weekly Globe of Toronto has had an enviable reputation as the one great Liberal weekly of the Dominion. It has always been a high class journal, and a welcome visitor in thousands of homes. It was never better as a newspaper than it is to-day. The Globe's enterprise is proverbial. Its correspondents have traversed and written up, almost every section of the country. Its great events have been fully reported. The speeches of leading politicians, whether on the floor of Parliament or on the stump, have been presented as they were uttered, and all are fairly treated, whether Liberal, Conservative or Patron. The Globe is the only weekly paper in Canada that gives such full and fair reports of Parliamentary proceedings, great church meetings, and other similar occurrences of Provincial and national interest. Among leading features of recent numbers may be mentioned speeches by Mr. Laurier, Sir John Thompson, Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Marter, Mr. Haycock, members of the Ontario Cabinet, and others; letters from members of the Globe's editorial staff who travelled through the Province of Quebec and over the route of the Trent Valley Canal, interviews and letters on that most important question, the reform of the law system, long reports from the scene of the Jessie Keith murder, the McWherrel trial, and other sensational events. The aim of the Globe is to be trustworthy. The Globe has the best cable and telegraphic service obtainable; its foreign, American and Canadian despatches are unexcelled, and every week the whole world is brought under review. The agricultural department is right up to the times; the crop and market reports are full and reliable. Reasonable space is given up each week to lighter reading, and good stories is one of the Globe's attractions. Another popular feature are the weekly contributions from the Khan's poetical pen. As a family newspaper the Weekly Globe is unrivalled.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE for 1895.—The success of this sterling periodical is owing to the fact that it enables one, with a small outlay of time and money, to keep pace with the best thought and literature of the day. Hence its importance to every American reader. It has always stood at the head of its class, both in the quality and quantity of the reading furnished; and in fact it affords of itself so thorough and complete a compendium of what is of immediate interest or permanent value in the literary world as to render it an invaluable economizer of time, labor and money. In the multitude of periodicals of the present time, quarterlies, monthlies and weeklies—such a publication has become almost a necessity to every person or family desiring to keep well informed in the best literature of the day.

For 1895, an extraordinary offer is made to all new subscribers; and reduced clubbing rates with other periodicals are also given by which a subscriber may at remarkably small cost obtain the cream of both home and foreign literature. Those selecting their periodicals for the new year would do well to examine the prospectus. In no other way that we know of can a subscriber be put in possession of the best which the current literature of the world affords, so cheaply or conveniently. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The Sunday School.

Sunday-School Literature.

What shall the Sunday-school provide in the matter of reading for its pupils?

What special purpose does the Sunday-school library serve?

What ought to be the character of our Sunday-school library?

The importance of reading to the young cannot be overlooked by the thoughtful teacher. Children will read; they ought to read; and teachers as well as parents ought to have the oversight of that reading. So influential is reading in forming our characters, that it will, in many cases, make or mar the life of a child.

As our libraries are at present made up, I have some doubt of their usefulness. There is a good deal of poor religious fiction which might well give place to a better and healthier class of reading. I have just found a few paragraphs in an old copy of the Teacher's Mentor, by W. F. Cowden, which express my thoughts, and will give it here.

46 Jacob sendeth Benjamin. GENESIS, 43. Joseph entertaineth his brethren. CHAPTER XLIII. Joseph said unto Benjamin, Bring with thee, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon. 16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and they shall dine with me at noon. 17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. 18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house.
