triculant of some University in Ontario, before he can be admitted to the Law Society.

The three law examinations which every student and clerk must pass after his admission, Viz., first intermediate, second intermediate, and final examinations, must, except in the case to be presently mentioned of those students and clerks who are wholly or partly exempt from attendance at the School, be passed at the Law School Examinations under the Law School Curriculum hereinaster printed, the first intermediate examination being passed at the close of the first, the second intermediate examination at the close of the second, and the final examination at the close of the third year of the school course respectively.

Any student or clerk who under the Rules is exempt from attending the lectures of the School the second or third year of the course is at liberty to pass his second intermediate or final examination or both, as the case may be, under the Law Society Curriculum instead of doing so at the Law School Examinations under the Law School Curriculum, provided he does so within the period during which it is deemed proper to continue the holding of such examinations under the said Law Society Curriculum. The first intermediate examination under that curriculum has been already discontinued, and that examination must now be passed under the Law School Curriculum at the Law School Examined School Curriculum at the Law School Examined aminations by all students and clerks, whether required to attend the lectures of the first year or not. It will be the same in regard to the second intermediate examination after May, 1893, after which time that examination under the Law Society Curriculum will be discontinued. Due notice will be hereafter published of the discontinuance of the final examinations under that curriculum.

The percentage of marks which must be obtained in order to pass an examination of the Law School is fifty-five per cent, of the aggregate number of ber of marks obtainable, and twenty-nine per cent.

of the marks obtainable upon each paper. Examinations are also held in the week commencing with the first Monday in September for those who were not entitled to present themselves for the earlier examination, or who, having presented themselves, failed in whole or in part. Students whose attendance upon lectures has been allowed as sufficient, and who have failed at the lowed as sufficient, and who have failed at the May examinations, may present them-selves at the September examinations, either in the subjects or in those subjects only in which subjects or in those subjects one cent. which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable in such subjects. Those entitled entitled, and desiring, to present themselves at the September examinations must give notice in which Law Society, in writing to the Secretary of the Law Society, at least of such exat least two weeks prior to the time of such examinations, of their intention to present themselves, stating whether they intend to do so in all the sale the subjects, or in those only in which they failed to obtain to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtain able. able, mentioning the names of such subjects

The time for holding the examinations at the close of the term of the Law School in any year may be varied from time to time by the Legal Education Committee, as occasion may require.

On the subject of examinations reference may be made to Rules 168 to 174 inclusive, and to the Act R.S.O. (1887), cap. 147, secs. 7 to 10 inclusive.

HONORS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND MEDALS.

The Law School examinations at the close of term include examinations for Honors in all the three years of the School course. Scholarships are offered for competition in connection with the first and second intermediate examinations, and medals in connection with the final examination.

In connection with the intermediate examinations under the Law Society's Curriculum, no examination for Honors is held, nor Scholarship offered. An examination for Honors is held, and medals are offered in connection with the final examination for Call to the Bar, but not in connection with the final examination for admission as Solicitor.

In order to be entitled to present themselves for an examination for Honors, candidates must obtain at least three-fourths of the whole number of marks obtainable on the papers, and onethird of the marks obtainable on the paper on each subject, at the Pass examination. In order to be passed with Honors, candidates must obtain at least three-fourths of the aggregate marks obtainable on the papers in both the Pass and Honor examinations, and at least onehalf of the aggregate marks obtainable on the papers in each subject on both examinations.

The scholarships offered at the Law School examinations are the following:

Of the candidates passed with Honors at each of the intermediate examinations the first shall be entitled to a scholarship of $100, the second to a scholarship of $60, and the next five to a scholarship of $40 each, and each scholar shall receive a diploma certifying to the fact.

The medals offered at the final examinations of the Law School and also at the final examination for Call to the Bar under the Law Society

Curriculum are the following:

Of the persons called with Honors the first three shall be entitled to medals on the following conditions:

The First: If he has passed both intermediate examinations with Honors, to a gold medal, otherwise to a silver medal.

The Second: If he has passed both intermediate examinations with Honors, to a silver medal, otherwise to a bronze medal.

The Third: If he has passed both intermediate examinations with Honors, to a bronze medal.

The diploma of each medallist shall certify to his being such medallist.

The latest edition of the Curriculum contains all the Rules of the Law Society which are of importance to students, together with the necessary forms, as well as the Statutes respecting Barristers and Solicitors, the Matriculation Curriculum, and all other necessary information.