There is a strike on among the boot and shoe operations in Quebec city, which threatens to tie up the industry.

The boiler-makers in the C. P. R. shops at Montreal, went out on strike last Saturday, and on Monday the company closed down its engineering shops entirely.

A report from Vancouver, dated July 11, says: Word comes from Ashcroft that the Cariboo stage brought down yesterday a gold brick worth $135,000 from the Consolidated Cariboo Hydraulic camps mines, being the proceeds of the first clean-up of the season, or about 62 days' work. Manager Hobson states that another brick will be shipped in the fall of slightly increased value.
