

It don't pay to have ten smart, active, intelligent boys transformed into thieves, to enable one man to lead an easy life, by selling them liquor.

It don't pay to have fifty workmen, and their families, live on bone soup, and half rations, in order that one saloon keeper may flourish on roast turkey and pudding.

It don't pay to have one thousand homes blasted, ruined, defiled and turned into a hell of discord and misery, in order that one wholesale liquor dealer may amass a large fortune.

It don't pay to give one man, for a few dollars per year a license to sell liquor, and then spend $5,000 on a trial of another man for buying that liquor, and committing murder under its influence.—Woman's Journal.
