IBISH NATIONAL LAND LEAGUE OF AMERICA

CENTRAL OFFICE, 19 ABOADE BUILDING, BUFFALO, N. Y., March 24, 1883.

In accordance with our annual custom, and complying with the provisions of our Conatitution, we hereby issue a call to the several Branches composing the Irish National Land League of America, for a general convention of that body, to be held in Horticultural Hall, in the City of Philadelphia. The convention will open on Wednesday, April 25th, at 11

Referring to our Constitution, it will be seen that it provides that: "The Convention shall consist of delegates from the several Branches of the organization in good standing at the time of the report next preceding the call for such Convention. Each Branch numbering fifty or more members in good standing at the time of such report shall be entitled to one delegate; and each Branch having three hundred or more members at the time of such report shall be entitled to an additional delegate for each two hundred members. Each delegate shall be provided with credentials, signed by the President and Secretary of the Branch which he represents, on blanks to be furnished from the Central Office." It is now decided that the distinguished Irish leader, Charles Stewart Parnell, with one or more of his colleagues, and Patrick Egan, the ex-Treasurer of the Land Lesgue will honor us by their presence. To give them such a welcome and reception as they deserve will alone suffice to call out the fullest strength of the Land League organization, and ensure its best efforts. Important business will come before this Convention, on which the future usefulness of the League will depend, and its closer union with the broader and more definite aims of the new National League in Ireland.

If anything more were needed—the manifold woes and miseries of the times in Iraland, the famine visitation, the cruel mockery of law, the heartless emigration schemes, the persistent effort to break the spirit of the unbappy people, to thwest, by means which outrage civilization and humanity alike, everything that promises any hope for their uplifting-furnish such incentives, for a grand raily of the friends of Ireland, that it is need, less for us to urge all members of the Land League to be active and enraest, to be ready with their ablest representatives, to make the coming Convention the most memorable and imposing in the history of the organization.

James Mooney, Rev Lawrence Walsh, JOHN J. HYNES. Central Council Land League of America.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN BELLEVILLE. The 17th of March has come and gone. Despite the Wiggins bolsterous prediction, it was bright and beautiful ; and here indeed it seemed a "pet" day midst the dark and frowning clouds and storms of its kindred surroundings. May God grant that the nightness of that memorable day were intended as a providential indication of the near approach of poor Ireland's redemption, All day the city, was crowded with people looking cheerful and happy, but no public demonstration or procession. That part, however, I find no fault with, Low Mass was celebrated in St. Michael's in the morning at half past seven; and that was all, alas! The young. Irish Canadians - Sons of St. Patrick Nociety-gave a dinner at Mr. O'Brien's Hotel in the evening. It was a very good entertainment, and on the whole passed off quite pleasently. The essembly was chiefly composed of the sons of Irishmen, very few, if any, of the old time-honored born stock were present on that occasion. Can't say why, with a view I suppose of adding to the respectability of the entertainment there were also present eight or ten invited guests—outsiders—rome of whose Irish symesthies were indeed evidently doubtful. The "speeches"—well. A Mr. Carroll spoke and waxed eloquent in severe terms on the "Irish outrages," but the idea of placing Irish and English outrages in the balance he seemed entirely to ignore. For an Irishman, his expressed sympathies were decidedly more English than Irish. Mr. S. O'Brien delivered a very neat and appropriate speech, and for a young man did splendid. Mr. J. J. B. Flint, one of the invited guests, a talented and fluent speaker and always sincere and earnest in his remarks, also made a gentlemanly and very appropriate speech. Messrs. S. Burdet and T. Holden, P. M., invited "dead-heads," who would not have been present on that occasion if they had to pay seventy-five cents for a ticket, when called upon were not even prepared with a decent response, but, on the contrary, smused themselves, as they supposed, by cracking supply and insulting jokes at the expense of their Irish friends. Sam and Tom, both batled from Tyendinaga—the Indian woods. Trendluaga being an Irish settlement the former took occasion to couple a man. Further, that Irishmen never got free-connection between the Mohawk and the Irishdom or instice except at point of the bayonet etc. The latter then disparsgingly remarked that in his Police Court Irishmen frequently got their liberty by paying two dollars and costs. And yet, strange to say, this brace of most unpopular Parliamentary impossibilities seem ambitious even to a fault. But why pursue them farther? they are birds of the corvine species, not edible, and therefore not worth depluming.

M. CEROUI. Rue Rivole, At. MONSIEUR-As the Star of the East led and guided the magi to our Redeemer's feet, so does the crucifix treated with your compound, in the darkness of my chamber, in the solemnity of the night, lead my soul from earth to heaven, where in eternal glory reigns the Being whose emblems shines and overshadows my sleeping moments.

Yours in X,

BRO. JOACHIM.

From the New York Correspondence of the Dublin Freeman's Journal, Februars 16, 1881.

Through the courtesy of Mr. J. R. Maxwell & Co., proprietors of M. Cerqui's Chemical Compound, we were favored with a private view of one of the most wonderful discoveries of the century. I was led into a room, the curtains were drawn and every ray of light was excluded, and in the darkness, where first I saw only plain plaster figures, there stood out in clear, bright, awe-inspiring distinctness, first the figure of the Saviour suspended in space, as it were, then on either side the figures of Mary and Joseph, while looming up in the foreground was the figure of an angel bearing a crown that seemed to rain light. If ever a feeling of faith and veneration possessed a Catholic, it then overwhelmed the writer, the scene was so novel and reverential. Upon leaving we were presented with a cross; it is kept on a bracket in our chamber, and in the darkness of night it seems to say, sleep safe, His cross watches and guards you.

We also have the honor to refer to the following Clergymen and Sisters: Rev. Thos. Kierns, Lehigh Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. J. Slattery, Susquehanna, Pa.; Rev. J. Murphy, Blossburg, Pa.; Rev. M. Voigt, Franciscan College, Trenton, N.J.; Rev. T. Reardon, Easton, Pa.; Convent of Good Shepherd, Baltimore, Md.

$1.00 EACH!

If you possessed a Cross or any religious object treated with this compound, you will readily ee how much satisfaction and with what a reverential feeling such an object would be viewed at night, when darkness and silence reign supreme, then like protecting figures, insignias of our faith, beautifully bright, uninfluenced by the surrounding gloom, they are an inspiration for the last thought or word before sleep overcomes us.

We are now mannfacturing such Crosses, and a number of different Statuettes, Crucifixes, and the usual Church Ornaments, and treating them with this wonderful compound. We also desire to inform you that we are prepared to treat, at a nominal cost, any articles of a like nature you may wish to have rendered as distinct at night as they are during the day. • For $1.00 we will send you a Cross, including pedestal, possessing this desirable quality, confident that after once witnessing the feeling it inspires, looming up like a torch of faith in the blackness of night, you will order more, and urge upon your friends the satisfaction the possession of one gives in the silent hours of the night.

$1.00 each for Crosses. 82.00 for Crucifixes, 9-inch figure. Orosses $9.00 per dozen, or $5.00 per half dozen.

Send money by Registered Letter and we send Crosses free of charge.
