POLITICAL CAMPAIGN NOTES.

TORT POW-WOW.

It is understood that Sir John Macdonald has accepted the invitation of the Young Men's Conservative association, of London, Unt., to attend a plitical demonstration there on his return from the Northwest. Several cabinet ministers will accompany the premier, and a great Tory pow-wow will be the result. TOBY POW-WOW.

MEETING IN MEGANTIC. MEETING IN MEGANTIC.

A large meeting of the electors of Megantic, held at Leeds on Faiday, was addressed by Hon. Messrs. Laurier and Langelier and Mr. Whyte, M.P.P. Mr. Laurier spoke with his usual vigor and eloquence. The meeting, which was made up almost exclusively of Englishmeeting men. expressed their approval of the was made up almost excusively of English-speaking men, expressed their approval of the courte of Messrs. Laurier and Langelier in the House of Commons. The re-election of Mr. Whyte to the Quebec Assembly is assured. ALONZO WEIGHT'S SUCCESSOR.

ALONZO WRIGHT'S SUCCESSOR.

The Conservatives are endeavoring to induce Mr. John Gilmour, the well known lumberman, to accept a nomination for the House of Commons in Ottawa county. Mr. Gilmour, it is said, objects to entering active politics.

"I see the Tory press is announcing you to be a condidate for the Dominion parliament in Ottawa county at the approaching general election," said a Free Press reporter to Mr. James McLaren, of Buckingham, to day. "You can say that no one has had my authority to use my name in connection with the representation of Ottawa or any other county so far." OTTAWA COUNTY.

Ottawa or any other county so far.

THE CHAMBLY CONTEST.

La Fresse points out that Mayor Normandin, of Longueuil, who presided over the Liberal meeting at that place on Friday, has acted as chairman of the Conservative election committee in Longueuil at every election that has taken place in Chambly during the past twenty years. He has had enough of Tory ism.

A COMPLAINT. La Minerre complains bitterly because, as it alleges, two employes on the Beauharnois canal are working against the candidate of the Quebec government in that county, and threatens them with dire consequences. It would be all right, in the eyes of La Minerre, if these public completes would only work for the Town condiright, in the eyes of La Mineret, it these public employes would only work for the Tery candidate. In this vicinity people are a customed to seeing Dominion officials actively canvassing seeing Dominion officials actively canvassing for Tory candidates and even taking the field as candidates in opposition to the Ontario government. At the last Dominion election in Ottawa the Conservative committees were made up chiefly of government employés.—Offawa Free Press.

Hon. Thos. White, Minister of the Interior, accompanied by Mrs. White, and the Misses White, Mr. H. H. Smith, Dominion Land Commissioner, Mr. W. Smith, Mr. Pereira, private secretary to the minister, and Mr. Higginson, Dominion grown timber, agent, have served in Secretary to the minister, and Mr. Higginson, Dominion crown timber agent, have arrived in Victoria, B.C., and are stopping at the Driard. Mrs. White is somewhat indisposed after her journey across the continent, the heat being appropriate before the train mached the Paleira oppressive before the train reached the Rockies.

A numerously attended meeting of the electors of the county of Argentsuil was held at Lachute, on Saturday afternoon, with Mr. F. C. Ireland, president of the Liberal Conservative association, in the chair, for the purpose of nominating a Conservative candidate for the local Legislature at the forthcoming electrons. On motion of Mr. George Simps n, of St. Andrews, seconded by Mr. David Williamson, Grenville, Mr. William Owens, M.P.P., was unanimously renominated. A numerously attended meeting of the elecunanimously renominated.

A grand political meeting has been called by Mr. Marion, member for L'Assomp tion, to be held at Mascouche on the 27th instant, at one p.m., when a number of prominent speakers will address the meeting. There is some talk of starting a special train which will leave the city at noon, returning to Montreal after the meeting.

THE OTTAWA VOTERS' LISTS.

THE ORANGEMEN'S DAY AT KIN-

NEAR'S MILLS. To the Editor of THE POST and PRUE WIT-

NESS: DEAR SIR, -In this County of Megantic, which bears the reputation of being free from the pangs of religious bigotry, rarely are our Catholic ears shocked by those harsher epi-thets which characterized an Orange celebration some twenty years ago, when the deeds of King Billy were fresh in the memory of those old sires of Orangeism who had been traitors to their religion and country. But, if we consider for a moment the celebration which took place at Kinness's Mile upon July 12, and the very prominent part which the Rev. Mr. Maxwell played, we are induced to believe that the former days of religious strife are to be renewed with all their fearful episodes, if intelligent Protestants should be influenced or guided by the eplenetic ravings of this apostle of good will, who is an intimate companion of our local member, Mr. John Whyte. The rev. gentleman, being invited for the occasion, mounted a stand in the open air and commenced his harangue, surrounded by a numerous crowd eager to catch the words which fell from the capacious mouth of this pillar of Orangeism, whose satanic majesty displayed all the odium he possibly could, by word and act, against the Church of Rome. He begins by thanking God that we are in an enlightened age, and men's minds were beginning to see the snares of priestoraft. The world owed a great debt to his friend, Martin Luther, for the glorious reformation. That the honor which was given to Cardinal Taschereau by our Local Parliament was insulting to Protestants, and we should endeavor to put down a government that could be enslaved by Romish rule. Catholics, wherever they are in the majority, are in darkness, being under the guidance of the priests, who used only trickery and deceit for instruction, confirming these Etatements by telling his hearers to consider the state of Ireland. "How much more en-lightened she is now, and progressive, than under the absolute dominion of the Pope and Popery." Lastly, he wound up by abusing his Catholic neighbors of St. Sylvester, vilifying the priests, ridiculing the confessional and the nuns, and, with hands uplifted and features distorted, he hoped that Protestants would become more united, so that they could resist the malicious attacks of Pope and Popery.

Now, I would ask this satanic wolf in sheep's clothing upon what foundation could he establish the veracity of his remarks, of which I have given but a short quotation. If he reads Corbett, a Protestant historian, relative to the glorious Reformation, the state of Ireland or England previous to the apostacy of Martin Lather, he must confess Church throughout christendom, the grandeur correspondence; but above all, Burke, especifier teaching and the sublime principles cially his writings on America, as applicable which she inculcates, giving equal justice to all classes, to the Protestant as well as the Catholic, to the uncouth savage as well as the foolieh skeptio, and even to Mr. Maxwell, Nineteenth Century.

he could not feel otherwise than horrified at his miserable attempt to slander the Catholic Church, and more especially should be be ashamed at the base imputations which he used in a particular sense against his Catholic neighbors of St. Sylvester, warning his hearers not to reveal what he said. But it is an avowed fact that the murderer cannot hide his guilt, neither can the slanderer, since both are closely allied in iniquity—the difference is that the former puts his malice into effect, while the latter is deterred through cowardice. Yes, Mr. Maxwell, the Protestants of Leeds are ashamed of you. It is sad for them to think that a Minister of the Gospel, whose calling should be to preach peace, would fan the flame of religious discord among a peaceful and united people. The Catholics throughout pity you for your ignorance and despise your insolence, believing to a little extent in the theory of evolution that a Presbyterian minister of your type should form a good specimen for Mr. Darwin to illustrate his arguments on the lit le difference between the man and the monkey. VERITAS.

County of Megantic, July 15, 1886.

SAD DEATH OF A RESPECTED CIT IZEN.

It is with regret that we notice the sudden demise of the late Peter McCabe, one of Port Hope's most respected citizens, and one who has held some of the highest municipal offices in the gift of the electorate. Deceased had been ailing for some weeks past, but it was not considered serious, as he continued around much as usual. On the morning of his death he complained of a slight headache, but went out to his mill, as was his custom, and about cight o'clock he was found lying on his face on the floor. Medical aid was summoned, but although he rallied s'ightly, he recognized no one. Apoplexy was, the doctors say, the Cause of his death. He was born in Wextord County, Ireland, in 1828, and came to this country about 1850, and to Port Hope in 1861; for a number of years past he has been more or less extensively interested in the milling interest. His death will be mourned by a very large circle of friends, who knew his sterling worth and honor as a man and a friend; while his family lose a kind and lov ing husband and father, upon whose memory there rests not the shadow of wrong. We, with their friends, extend our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement.

The funeral of tha late Peter McCabe took place on Sunday afternoon, and was a very large one, evidencing the high regard and esteem in which he was held by all classes of our citizens. On every side were heard warm expressions of respect for his high honor and integrity, and deep regret at his lamented demise. He was par excellence that master-work of creation, "an honest man." The members of the town council and town offi-cials attended the last sad rites, and in the long cortege were the most prominent of our citizens. Feeling reference was made to the and no longer, deceased by the Rev. Father Brown in St. In witness thereof the undersigned have deceased by the Rev. Father Brown in St. Mary's church, Sunday morning. A requiem Mass was said in St. Mary's church Monday morning for the repose of the soul of the departed.

DAVITT ON OBSTRUCTION.

NEW YORK, July 21.—The following cable despatch has been received by Patrick Ford, of the Irish World:-

rule a majority. The true policy for Home Rulers is to advocate the reforms required by the workers of Great Britain while advocating justice to Ireland.

"The struggle for the highest form of Irish liberty can and ought to run parallel to the aspirations of the British democracy for a reform of their social condition, for economic cal liberty, for labor in the field and the work.

shop.
"The issue knit by Gladstone is, the classes against the masses in the effort to satisfy the national demand of the Irish people.

"If the Irish people obstruct the vause of the English masses they will be playing the game of the classes and forfeit the sympathy of the million and a-half of British voters who supported Home Rule this election.
"Ireland has a splendid change of winning a better measure of home rule then that de feated if we show the millions who toll and spin in Great Britain that, in fighting for our rights, we place no limit to the cause of liberty and will strive for it for the people of England, Scotland and Wales, as well as for the people of Iroland.

"By this policy we will soon have the voters of England tollowing the example of the Scotch and Welsh in supporting home rule.

A WIFE'S REVENCE.

HOW AN INJURED OHIO WOMAN TREATED HER ERRING HUSBAND'S COMPANION.

TROY, Ohio, July 21 .- Mrs. Sullivan, wife of Theodore Sullivan, a prominent lawyer and politician, suspecting her husband of in-fidelity, hired detectives. She learned he was at the house of Ida Hamilton, a beautiful blonde, and proceeded on Monday night, with her 19 year old son and two of his friends, to the house. They gained entrance to the second storey by a ladder and found Sullivan in the room with the woman. Mrs. Feeding them in a separate place to which Sullivan seized her, and while her son and his they have access will accustom them to eatfriends kept the guilty pair covered with re. ing. volvers, Mrs. Sullivan turned a bucket of mixed tar and creosote over Miss Hamilton's head and shoulders, completely covering her person with the mess. When the tar cooled it could not be cleaned from her head and her hair was therefore shaved off close to the scalp. She is a pitiable sight, Mrs. Sullivan will institute proceedings for divorce.

named and specified in the said article.

Article 2.—The provisions of the tenth article of the said treaty, and of this convention, sha'l apply to persons convicted of crimes the 's in respect vely named and specified, whose scitence thereupon shall not have been executed. In the case of a fugitive criminal, alleged to have been convicted of a crime for which his surrender is asked, a copy of the record of con surrender is asked, a copy of the record of con-viction and of the sentence of the court before which such conviction took place, duly authen-ticated, shall be produced, together with evidence that the prisoner is the parson to whom such sentence refers.

Article 3.—This convention shall not apply to any of the crimes herein named and specified which shall have been committed onto any con-

which shall have been committed, or to any convictions which shall have been procured prior to the da'e when the convention shall come into force.

Article 4. - No fugitive criminal shall be surrendered under the provisions of the said treaty or of this convent on if the crime in respect of which his surrender is demanded be one of a political character, or if he prove to competent authority that the said requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for a crime of a political charac-

to either of the high contracting parties under the provisions of the said treaty or of this convention shall not, until he has had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered, be detained or tried for any crime committed prior to his surren der other than an extradition crime, proved by the facts under which his surrender was

Article 6.-The extradition of fugitives under the provisions of the said treaty and the present convention shall be carried out in the United States and in Her Majesty's Dominion respectively, subject to and in conformity with the laws regulating extradition for the time being in force in the surrendering state.

Article 7.—This convention shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at London as soon as possible. It shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms pre-cribed by the laws of the high contracting parties, and shall continue in force until one or the other of the high contracting parties shall signify its wish to terminate it, signed the same, and have affixed thereunto their seals.

MINISTER PHELPS' EXPLANATION.

Minister Phelps, in a letter to Secretary Bayard, says: "The treaty conforms in all substantial particulars so nearly to the form heretofore prepared by me and submitted to the Department of State for consideration, and "I have read the extracts from the Irish World article recommending the Irish Parliamentary party to adopt the policy of obstructing in Parliament measures introduced for the benefit of the English masses because of the votes of the latter against thome Rule. This policy would be sucidal. The English are not against Gladstone and Home Rule, but against the land purchase the mark of the bring the matter to an early conclusion, though Judge Lyon, as revising barrister for the city of Ottawa, closed his final revision of the Dominion voters' lists this morning. Both parties because of the votes of the latter against consented. The new city voters' lists for the Dominion contains 9,600 names, of which 500 are repeaters, leaving 9,100 duly qualified electors. The total vote polled at the last Dominion contains 9600 names, of which 500 general elections did not exceed 2,900 votes. This enormous increase is due as much to the enormous increase is due as much to the enormous growth of the city during the past few years as to other causes. The number of polling sub-divisions for Ottawa at the Dominion elections will be 51; at the last contest the l are, in my judgment, unnecessary; but as the convention, as finally concluded, is in all its material provisions in accordance with my own views as approved by you, I signed those concessions as judicious."

Mr. Phelps says it is understood between the Governments that the convention shall not stand in the way of a more elaborate treaty if one is desire!, but he expresses the opinion that the new treaty will not be necessary. The convention is now before the Senate Committee on Judiciary, from which it will be referred to the committee on Foreign Affairs. An early report to the Senate is looked for, though the convention may not be ratified at the present sessions of Contrast

The best varieties of lettuce for summer use are the yellow butter and the white summer cabbage. In a deep, well enriched soil they stand the heat well and remain for a long time in a condition for use. These varieties form large heads, and on this account are objectionable to some persons.

A swine breeder says that in weaning pigs there is something more to be considered than simply taking them away from their mother. They should be weaned gradually, so as not Geese can be fattened cheaply, as they will eagerly consume chopped turnips or any other kind of cheap material at this season; but to get them very fat they should have cornialso. A goose should not be too fat, as such is objectionable, but they should not be kept fat enough to present an excellent mar-ket appearance. The young geese that have not completed their growth, however, cannot extremely fat until matured.

. An old horseman has this to say about the use of blinds on horses:—"Usually the use of blinds causes the very evil which it is intended to remedy—shying. The horse shies because he sees something imperiectly, or cannot see at all an object which makes a noise, the nature of which he does not understand. If he has not blinds to interfere with his sight he will shy less often. If you could not see on either side, only straight ahead, you would be far more timid, your heart would suddenly begin to beat faster, much oftener than it does now. So with a horse; blinds make him timid. If you have a horse addicted to shying, remove the blinds and be kind to him for a few days, until he has gained confidence in himself and in you This will effect a radical cure.
