

A highly picturesque wedding took place the other day when Lady Ada Edwina Roberts, younger daughter of Field Marshal Earl Roberts, was married to Major Henry Lewin, R.A. The military element was naturally very prominent and the couple drove from the Church to Englemere behind a team of six horses.

—Central News, photo.

The latest "freak" ball of society was the "Baby Party" held in London, Eng., recently, when the guests were dressed up to represent children. The photograph shows a few of the adult "babies."

—Sport and General, photo.