

- (b) the participants to the proceedings have the right to legal representation, and to be heard prior to a decision of the review body being made on the complaint;
  - (c) the participants to the proceedings have access to all proceedings; and
  - (d) the findings and recommendations relating to supplier complaints be provided in a timely fashion, in writing, with an explanation of their basis.
6. Each party shall ensure that a supplier's submission of a complaint will not prejudice the supplier's participation in ongoing or future procurements.

ARTICLE Kbis-14

Modifications and Rectifications

1. Where a Party modifies its coverage under this Chapter, the Party shall
  - (a) notify the other Party in writing; and
  - (b) propose appropriate compensatory adjustments to the other Party to maintain a level of coverage comparable to that existing prior to the modification.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1(b), a Party need not provide compensatory adjustments where the Parties agree that:
  - (a) the modification in question is a minor amendment or rectification of a purely formal nature; or
  - (b) the proposed modification covers an entity over which a Party has effectively eliminated its control or influence.
3. If the other Party does not agree to the compensatory adjustments proposed under paragraph 1(b), or that the modification is a minor amendment or rectification of a purely formal nature, or that government control or influence has been effectively eliminated from the entity in question, the other Party must object in writing within 30 days of receipt of the notification or be deemed to have agreed.
