

interests. But it is an essential service—and one for which Canada has special qualification, because of her experience, because of her reputation for fairness, and because of her technical skills.

Support for peacekeeping has been a principal element in Canada's post-war foreign policy. The need for our continuing and active support for it has not diminished with the passage of time. For Canada now to lose heart, and reduce its interests in peacekeeping would be an abdication of responsibility. No other country could fill the gap thus opened—and the development of effective peacekeeping would be set back with incalculable, but certainly disastrous, effect.

The Subcommittee cannot assert too strongly its conviction that strong and tenacious advocacy of improved United Nations peacekeeping should remain a foremost priority in Canada's foreign policy.

Mr. Serré for Mr. Leblanc (Laurier), from the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Estimates, presented the Sixth Report of the said Committee, which is as follows:

Pursuant to its Order of Reference of Thursday, May 14, 1970, your Committee has considered Bill C-209, An Act to amend the Excise Act, and has agreed to report it with the following amendments:

Delete lines 30 to 42 both inclusive, on page 20, and lines 1 to 7 both inclusive, on page 21, and substitute the following therefor:

"254. All vessels containing wood alcohol or denatured alcohol, the labelling of which is not regulated by any regulations made under the Hazardous Products Act, shall be labelled in accordance with regulations prescribed under this Act for the purpose of ensuring that the contents of the vessels are clearly identified as a poison."

New Clause 44

Add immediately after Clause 43 on page 21 the following new Clause 44:

'44. Subsection (2) of section 260 of the said Act is repealed.'

Renumber Clauses 44 and 45 as Clauses 45 and 46 respectively.

Your Committee has ordered a reprint of Bill C-209 as amended.

A copy of the relevant Minutes of Proceedings and Evidence (Issue No. 28) is tabled.
