

in accordance with the respective rules of each House, praying that the making of the Order in Council be approved, shall be debated in each House for not more than seven hours respectively after which time the question shall be decided in accordance with the rules of each House as the case may be.

(2) In the event that Parliament shall not then be sitting by reason of adjournment, prorogation or dissolution:

(a) An Order in Council as hereinabove described may be made as deemed necessary subject to the said order being laid on the Table of both Houses within fifteen sitting days of the next ensuing session of Parliament and the making of the Order in Council has been confirmed by a resolution of Parliament within the first thirty sitting days.

(b) Where an Order in Council has been laid before the Senate and the House of Commons pursuant to subsection (2) (a) confirmation of the said Order in Council shall be governed as in subsection (1) (b)."

and by renumbering subsequent clauses accordingly.

After debate thereon, the question being put on the said motion, it was negatived, on division.

Mr. Broadbent, seconded by Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre), moved,—That Bill C-262, An Act to support employment in Canada by mitigating the disruptive effect on Canadian industry of the imposition of foreign import surtaxes or other actions of a like effect, be amended by adding the following immediately after line 7 at page 8:

"21. (1) The Minister shall within fifteen days after the end of each month prepare a report on the amount of each grant, the levels of employment and production at the beginning and at the end of the assistance period at the plant, and such report shall be laid before Parliament forthwith upon the completion thereof or, if Parliament is not then sitting, on any of the first fifteen days next thereafter that Parliament is sitting."

and by renumbering Clause 21 at line 8 as subclause (2) of Clause 21.

After debate thereon, the question being put on the said motion, it was negatived on the following division:
