

Turner William was very delighted to get a letter from ~~William~~, and I do hope their friendship will continue, though it is perhaps rather a lot to expect from school-boys. John still hankers very much for Canada, and I should not be at all astonished if he made up his mind to try and earn his livelihood there when he leaves Cambridge.

Please remember us warmly to lady Currie.

Yours very truly

Basil Williams