

NOTICES OF

D.

REVIEW.

of a house, discourses on and life. The foundation is Foundation of the Apostles prophets. It is an Apologia objections of the day. Dr.
His little book is strong and

REVIEW.

ts his arguments with much eer, Mill, Huxley, &c., are al reading."

in its structure and composi-e in every way serviceable to being loose, the arguments ments firm and bold without

ORDER.

ntative weapons of the finest
e not the time or opportunity ont who wish to be able to
and its teachings."

INERS STREET, W.

WORKS ON CHRISTIAN EVIDENCES AND APOLOGETICS.

PUBLISHED BY JAMES NISBET & CO.

THE NATURAL ELEMENTS OF REVEALED THEOLOGY.

By the Rev. GEORGE MATHESON, D.D. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"It would be hard to find any small volume in which the immense need for the Christian Revelation, and the Divine, all-satisfying character of that Revelation are more lucidly and attractively set forth."—Expositor.

"The author shows himself to be a student of the best philosophical literature, a profound thinker, and a vigorous logician."—Homilet.

ALIKE AND PERFECT; or, God's Three Revelations. By the Rev. C. A. WILLIAMS. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

"This valuable treatise will prove attractive alike in its descriptions of natural scenery, in its references to the finger of God in history, and in its clear enunciation of the Divine method for fallen man's restoration."—Record.

THE BIBLE TRUE TO ITSELF. A Treatise on the Historical Truth of the Old Testament. By the Rev. A. MOODY STUART, D.D. New Edition. Crown 8vo, 5s.

"The argument is elaborate both in plan and execution. The four principal topics are Deuteronomy, the Mosaic authorship of the Pentateuch, the order of Old Testament development, and the naivety of Isaiah. The orderly, cumulative character of the argument may be gathered from the treatment of the second point. The volume is a profitable one both for head and heart."—London Quarterly Review.

"The untenableness of much modern criticism is shown in a few chapters which must make the book a standard one. On other points raised by the destructive school, the reasoning is calm, candid, and convincing."—Christian.

ISRAEL'S LAWGIVER: His Narrative True and His Laws
Genuine. By the Rev. A. MOODY STUART, D.D. Crown 8vo, 2s. 6d.

"We have to express our thankful admiration of the way in which Dr. Moody Stuart has accomplished his task, and our hope that his scholarly dissertation may receive the calm consideration of those whose minds may have been disturbed and convictions shaken by recent critical speculations."—Messenger (Presbyterian).