

Keep Smiling

In living over life's best days
The day comes back again,
When first we met, and in my heart
You smile, as you did then.

And still I smile a sweeter smile
Because you smiled, and so
Your smile is passed to other hearts
To give them brighter glow.

Keep smiling, for your happy smiles
In other lives shine on,
To bring them in their darkest hours
The glory of Hope's dawn.
