EDWARD HEALY THOMPSON, M.A.

VIII.—THE LIFE OF LÉON PAPIN-DUPONT, THE HOLY MAN OF TOURS. Second Edition. Cloth, 6s.

"Mr. Healy Thompson's volume is not a mere translation of the Abbé Janvier's work. It is an original compilation, written in that well-known style of devout suggestiveness and literary excellence which characterise the writer's former volumes of religious biography. M. Dupont, as far as one can see, will be one day a canonised Saint. He died only six years ago, and he is, therefore, a man of the present generation. Many who knew him are still living, and we venture to say that most of them will be astonished by reading his history. . . . The life is full of devout thought and touching stories."—Dublin Review, January 1883.

"In this age of unbelief and irreligion, of luxury and extravagance, it cannot be otherwise than edifying and encouraging to read of the simple, holy, retired life of a French gentleman, whose whole time was devoted to assiduous prayer, union with God, and the service of his fellow-men, and a large portion of whose means were devoted to works of mercy and practical benevolence. . . . The special object which occupied his mind was the idea of reparation by the worship of our Lord's adorable Face outraged in the Passion. This idea grew more and more upon him, and at last absorbed and dominated his whole life, making him the initiator and leader of a work the supernatural origin of which was attested by miracles and prodigies innumerable. It is to be hoped that at no very distant day M. Dupont may be raised to our altars."—Month.

I.—THE LIFE OF ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, S.J. Third Edition. 5s.

"The life before us brings out strongly a characteristic of the Saint which is, perhaps, little appreciated by many who have been attracted to him chiefly by the purity and early holiness which have made him the chosen patron of the young. This characteristic is his intense energy of will. . . . We have seldom been more struck than, in reading this record of his life, with the omnipotence of the human will when united with the will of God."—Dublin Review.

"The book before us contains numberless traces of a thoughtful and tender devotion to the Saint. It shows a loving penetration into his spirit, and an appreciation of the secret motives of his action, which can only be the result of a deeply affectionate study of his life and character."—Month.

II.—THE LIFE OF MARIE-EUSTELLE HARPAIN; or The Angel of the Eucharist. Third Edition. 5s.

"The life of Marie-Eustelle Harpain possesses a special value and interest, apart from its extraordinary natural and supernatural beauty, from the fact that to her example and to the effect of her writings is attributed, in great measure, the wonderful revival of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament in France, and consequently throughout Western Christendom."—Dublin Review.

"A most complete instance of that life of purity and close union with God in the world of which we have just been speaking is to be found in the history of Marie-Eustelle Harpain, the sempstress of Saint-Paulin. The writer of the present volume has had the advantage of very copious materials in the French works on which his own work is founded, and Mr. Thompson has discharged his office as editor with his usual diligence and accuracy."—Month.

"Marie-Eustelle was no ordinary person, but one of those marvellous creations of God's grace which are raised up from time to time for the
