

- 142; join in guerilla warfare against the British, 142, 153; the tragic fate of Prince Edward Island Acadians, 153-5; the return to Nova Scotia, 156, 157-9; a second deportation, 156; the number and situation of their descendants, 159-61. See Acadia.
- Adams, John, lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia, 48 and note.
- Ailleboust, d', governor of Ile Royale, 87.
- Alexander, Sir William, his colony in Nova Scotia, 7, 8, 9, 10, 17.
- Annapolis Royal, under the British, 23, 24, 26-7. See Port Royal.
- Anville, Duc d', his disastrous expedition for the recapture of Louisbourg, 52.
- Arbuthnot, Colonel, and the Acadians, 1-2.
- Argall, Captain, raids Port Royal, 6, 17.
- Armstrong, Lawrence, lieutenant-governor, his aggressive Acadian policy, 41-5, 47-8.
- Bannfield, his duplicity, 40.
- Bartelot, Captain, taken prisoner at Fort Lawrence, 79.
- Beauharnois, governor of New France, 52, 57-8.
- Beaujeu, at Grand Pré, 55.
- Beauséjour, captured by the British, 104-5.
- Belcher, Jonathan, governor of New Jersey, 144.
- Belcher, Jonathan, chief justice of Nova Scotia, 115, 117, 119 n.; lieutenant-governor, 155-6; censured by the Lords of Trade, 156-7.
- Biencourt, Charles de, his settlement at Port Royal, 5, 6, 7, 8. See Poutrincourt.
- Boishébert, asserts French claim to district of St John, 72, 75-6, 80, 122-3.
- Breaux, Joseph A., 159.
- Breslay, Abbé, and the Acadians, 45.
- Brouillan, governor of Acadia, 13; of Ile Royale, 47.
- Cape Breton, 31. See Ile Royale.
- Champlain, Samuel de, his explorations in Acadia, 3-5; on Razilly, 10.
- Charnisay, Sieur d'Aulnay, his conflict with La Tour in Acadia, 11-12.
- Cobb, Captain, his affray at St John, 75-6; assists in the expulsion, 121.
- Collier, John, 119 n.
- Company of One Hundred Associates, the, 9.
- Coquart, Father, 151.
- Cornwallis, Edward, governor of Nova Scotia, 60, 62, 71, 72, 73, 75, 78, 80, 81; and the oath of allegiance, 63-7 and note; refuses passports to the Acadians, 69.
- Cotterell, William, 119 n.
- Council of Nova Scotia, and the oath of allegiance, 42-4, 64, 66, 107-10, 112-13; and the governor Adams, 48; and the Indians, 72, 85, 96; and the Acadians, 86-7, 97-9, 100, 107-10, 112-13; decide on