SNOWFALL IN BERLIN

Berlin, Nov. 20.—Urgent calls for shovels, wheelbarrows and drays have shovels, wheelbarrows and drays have been made by the mayor of Berlin in his frantic effort to wage battle on snow drifts which are daily mounting in the streets of the capital. From the Brandenburger gate to Alexander Platz, and from the Spree to the southern limits of the inner city every street is flanked with four-foot snow banks, while the pavements and sidewalks are solidly covered with corrugated masses of snow.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Regina, Sask. Nov. 19.—Introduced as the man who had broken from the Union government on a question of principle. Hon. T. A. Crerar, former federal minister of agriculture, addressed a packed audience in the city hall tonight, outlining the history and enunciating the principle of the new national policy.

Show Dalles, sidewalks are solidly covered with corrugated masses of snow.

Conditions in outlying residence sections are even worse, and the situation generally has reached a stage which threatens to become disastrous to food deliveries and traffic generally. The snow storm which has prevailed here during the last few days has placed a heavy financial rurden on the city.
