ADELE ARRIVES

Canada Cup Challenger in Roches-

POCHESTER N.Y. Aug. 5 .- (Special) Adele arrived this afternoon and as the sailed in the harbor she was enthusiastically received by the R.Y.C. men. Her speed as shown by her sail ing into port stamps her as a faster boat than the Seneca and altho not under full canvas she was beating the best steamboat in this harbor. Of course the wind was directly north, but at that she showed speed that outclassed the Seneca, which in the opinion of many good yachtsmen here is not as fast as the Iroquois of two years ago.

The sketch above is taken at the foot of Princess-street, on the Esplanade, and shows how the piling laid down by a private firm of contractors, at a cost to the city of over $20.000, has "buckled" so as to give a serpentine twisting to the construction work. The city engineer says the buckle has been caused by a slumping away of earth at the bottom of the water, due to work by the government dredge further east. The piling will have to be reconstructed.

Albert Alker Wounded in Street While Walking With Mrs. Wing Chong.

"You try steal my wife!" cried Wing Chong as he slashed Albert Alker, a young Englishman, across the face with a knife in Richmond-street last night.

The cutting is a continuation of the matrimonial troubles of the Chongs, which have been brewing since their marriage in May. Wing operates a laundry at 313 Church-street, where Mrs. Wing has also resided spasmodically.

Alker is domiciled at 232 1-2 Sim-coe-street, and is employed in the printing department of the T. Eaton Co. shop. The trouble happened at 9.30 o'clock between York and Baystreets. Wing vows that it was the attempt of Alker to steal his wife that led to the trouble.
