Hyomei Building, Ithaca, N. Y. Does Your FOOD Digest Well?

When the food is imperfectly digested the full benefit is not derived from it by the body and the purpose of eating is defeated; no matter how good the food or how carefully adapted to the wants of the body it may be. Thus the dyspeptic often becomes thin, weak and debilitated, energy is lacking, brightness, snap and vim are lost, and in their place come dullness, lost appetite, depression and langour. It takes great knowledge to know when one has Indigestion, some of the following symptoms generally exist, viz.: constipation, sour stomach, variable appetite, headache, heartburn, gas in the stomach, etc.

The great point is to cure it, to get back bounding health and vigor. BURDOCK

BLOOD BITTERS s constantly effecting cures of dyspepsia because it acts in a natural yet effective way upon all the organs involved in the process of digestion, removing all clogging impurities and making easy the work of digestion and assimilation. Mr. R. G. Harvey, Ameliasburg, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with dyspapsia for several years and after using three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured. I cannot praise B.B.B. enough for what it has done for me. I have not had a sign of dyspepsis

Washington, D. C., May 23 .- The Secretary of the Treasury has received a tele-gram from Joseph W. Wheatley, special agent of the Treasury Department, at North Sydney, N. S., in which he says: "Papers of great importance to prove the smuggling operations of the Malcof, gang at New York were taken from Kawaja brothers at North Sydney by, special officers of the Canadian customs, with my assistance, under the direction of the Minister of Customs in Canada. "In an effort to secure the return of the papers, Kawaja brothers have charged me with the theft of the same, and have secured a magistrate's commitment to answer such charge. The papers were actually taken by and are now in custody of Canadian officers. I have notified the commissioner of customs of Canada. Please wire authorities to engage counsel and incur incidental expense."

In reply to this telegram the Treasury
Department has authorized Mr. Wheatley to employ counsel and to incur the neces-

Questions Settled. Washington, May 23 .- Long-delayed and vexed questions between the United States and Great Britain arising from boundary and fisheries disputes and claims of all character were the subject of a conference today between the Senate committee on oreign relations and Secretary of State The secretary sought the conference for the purpose of discussing pending treaties and numerous other subjects, which he thinks should be dealt with by Congress at the present session. It developed during the discussion that it is very unlikely that the joint high
