NEW YORK, May 11.—Summerlike weather prevailed at Jamaica to-day, and a big crowd was in attendance. The feature of the day was the Williamsburg Handicap, at 6 furlongs, and resulted in an easy victory for the second choice, Golden Pearl. He went into the lea dearly and steadily, increasing his advantage to the end, and won easily by five lengths from Big Chief and Rosimoro. The favorite, Cohort, ran a bad race, finishing away back in the ruck. Two Metropolitan Handicap candidates—Superman and Dandelion—made their first appearance here today and performed poorly. Superman finished second, while Dandelion was
