Brockville's Henley Crew.

BROCKVILLE, July 22.—It has been definitely decided that the Brockville Rowing Club will be represented at the Canadian Henley with a junior four and a junior double. Both crews have been training faithfully under the eye of Coach Carr, and recent trials show them fit for fast company. The men are rowing in Carr, and recent trials show them fit for fast company. The men are rowing in splendid form, especially the four, with Captain Row stroking. Behind him are Costello, Chapman and Brennan. They pull well together and ought to make a formidable quartet. Arthur O'Donohue and George Daily constitute the double. Both are husky young athletes, in prime condition.
