By Thief While Family Were at Church.

While walking down Yonge-street, near Wellesley, Frederick Hollis was arrested by Policeman Griggs yesterday evening for entering the house of Charles Dunning, 90 Hazelton-avenue, when the family were at church.

Hollis was seen by Mardell Kitchen, a boy who lives next door, who followed him. When arrested Hollis had a parcel containing a number of shirts, while at the station it was discovered that he had taken almost everything that was small enough to secrete in his pockets. Among the articles were three gold watches, pearl necklace, a couple of strings of beeds. numerous silk handkerchiefs, a num-ber of gold pins, a gold locket, two leather card cases, and a jewel case containing a gold chain and a ten dollar bill. The latter the thief did not know of. When it was shown him he exclaimed, "Gee, I didn't know that was there." Hollis told the police he entered the house thru the back door, which was open. This was later corroborated by Mrs. Dunning, who said that when she left for church her son was in charge. He later went out and left the head of the charge of the left that the left of the left that the left of the left that the left of out and left the back door unlock-
