PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

OPEN REGENT THEATRE

Formal Opening of Magnificent Playhouse Takes Place Tonight.

One of the most representative audiences that have ever witnessed the opening of a theatre in Toronto will be in attendance at the magnificent new Regent Theatre, Adelaide street, tonight.

The performance will commence sharp at 8.30 p.m., and invited guests will confer a favor on the management by being as punctual as possible, to enable the ushers to seat the great audience with as little inconvenience as possible. The theatre will be open to the general public at noon on Saturday, the 26th, when they will have an opportunity to see for themselves the most remarkable picture theatre on the continent.

MOLLIE WILLIAMS AND HER OWN SHOW.

Mollie Williams comes to the Gayety next week, commencing with the usual matinee. Mollie has been selling good and genuine burlesque to patrons of the popular Gayety for a good many years. With 40 performers, the pick of the burlesque world, with a carload of beautiful new scenery and electrical effects, with a small fortune in magnificent costumes, and a cargo of the prettiest girls imaginable, there can be no doubt of success. Mollie will have an endless chain of surprises to show next week.

MOLLY McINTYRE IN "SILENT SUE."

Toronto theatregoers will be pleased to learn that dainty little Molly McIntyre, the charming Scotch lassie, who delighted them with her admirable characterizations of Bunty in "Bunty Puls the Strings" and Kitty in "Kitty McKay," is to enter upon her first season as a star in a new English play by Eugenie Magnus, entitled "Silent Sue," and the opening is to take place next Monday evening at the Grand Opera House.

When she signed the contract with Mr. F. C. Whitney to star this season under his management, she stipulated in the agreement that the opening performance was to be given under the British flag. That is why she will twinkle as a star for the first time in Toronto. On Monday, the opening night, a benefit will be tendered the Divisional Cyclists, who are commencing a recruiting campaign.

MOVIES FOR RECRUITING.

The 198th Battalion, the Buffs, has secured the use of the Cosmopolitan Theatre on Yonge street, and, commencing Saturday, Aug. 26, moving pictures will be shown for the next 14 days, the proceeds to be devoted entirely to the battalion. Such popular films as "The Battle Cry of Peace," "Eternal City," and "Fighting in France," have been loaned by the film companies, and will be shown at each performance. A moving picture machine has been loaned, free of charge, and the government, in view of the fact that the show is for recruiting purposes only, has granted permission to sell tickets without the addition of the usual war tax. The performance will begin at 11 a.m. of each day that the theatre is open, and will close at 11 p.m.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

Quite the most wonderful of the many scenes pictured in "The Birth of a Nation" is that showing Sherman's march to the sea and the burning of the City of Atlanta. Imagine, if you can, a view of a long, fertile valley extending for miles, apparently between the hills. Moving thru the valley, in straggling formation, is the army of Gen. Sherman. Atlanta is reached. Whether the burning of the city was a military necessity, or whether the conflagration was of accidental origin, chroniclers of the time fail to agree, but Atlanta was sacrificed to the flames and the conflagration is so realistically pictured in "The Birth of a Nation" that one can almost smell the smoke and hear the cries of the terrified people as they flee to the hills for their lives.

It is a wonderful picture in very truth. Nothing like it has ever appeared on the screen, and it took a vast amount of labor and infinite patience to stage such a spectacle.

Engagements.

Cragg—Hayes—The engagement is announced of Miss Phyllis Marian Hayes, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Barry Hayes, 2 Wellesley Place, to Capt. Sidney J. Cragg of the Buffs, 198th Overseas Battalion, son of Mrs. M. A. and the late Mr. J. E. Cragg of Barnes, Surrey, England. 57

COLORS PRESENTED TO EASTERN UNIT

Nine Thousand People Witnessed Ceremony Yesterday at Cornwall.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Most Impressive and Biggest Gathering in the History of the Town.

Special to The World.

CORNWALL, Ont., Aug. 24.—The presentation of colors to the 154th Overseas Battalion, C.E.F., known as "The Counties' Own," took place on the Cornwall Lacrosse Grounds this afternoon, being witnessed by an immense throng present from every village and hamlet in the Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry.

The presentation was made by Miss Una Stewart, regent of St. Lawrence Chapter, I.O.D.E., thru the instrumentality of which the colors were procured. She was assisted by Misses Daphne Duquette and Lillian Phillips. Mrs. John McMartin, regent of Longue Sault Chapter, I.O.D.E., presented a handsome flag to the Highland pipe band. Lieuts. Pendergast and Morrison carried the colors, and Lieut. J. R. Macdonald accepted the flag for the band. Rev. H. C. Sutherland, moderator of the Presbytery of Glengarry, conducted the consecration service, which was held on an altar made of the battalion's drums.

In a capital address, Miss Stewart presented the colors to Col. McDonald, O.C. of the battalion, who acknowledged the thoughtfulness of the young ladies in an eloquent speech. He also spoke of the magnificent gift of Mrs. John McMartin of a flag for the pipe band. This was a splendid completion of equipment for the band, Mr. McMartin having contributed the entire cost of the kilts and pipes some time ago.

Other speakers were: General Hemming, O.C. Military District No. 3; Lt.-Col. Williams of Kingston, chief recruiting officer of the Dominion; Mr. Andrew Broder, M.P. for Dundas; Dr. D. O. Alguire, M.P. for Stormont; Hugh Munro, M.L.A. for Glengarry.

It is estimated that close on 9000 people were in town for the occasion, but many were unable to witness the ceremonies to advantage.

Everything was free to the public, the soldiers paying their own railway fare to come to Cornwall for the presentation. It was the greatest gathering in the history of the town, and the occasion will never be forgotten by those who witnessed the presentation. The singing of the National Anthem and three cheers for General Hemming and the regent and members of St. Lawrence Chapter, closed the ceremony.

The soldiers then marched up town and saluted General Hemming and his staff at the postoffice, and then proceeded to St. Lawrence Park, returning to Kingston at 9 p.m.

C. N. E. OFFICIALS TO FORMALLY GET GATE

Ceremonies Planned for Transfer of Eastern Entrance Today.

POSTOFFICE IS BACK

Rehearsals Continue Despite Rain, Which Interrupts Outdoor Work.

Mayor Church and the members of the council will formally turn over the new eastern entrance to the Exhibition to President Noel Marshall and the C.N.E. officials this afternoon, when the first motor cars will be driven over the Old Fort route to the grand stand terminal.

The cars carrying the party will leave the down-town offices of the Exhibition, King street, at 3 o'clock and from the city hall five minutes later. They will carry members of council, civic officials, the press, Exhibition directors, railway men and prominent citizens. After the arrival at the grounds short speeches will be made by the mayor and others in the administration building.

Yesterday afternoon the entrance was pronounced all ready for the opening. Workmen were putting the final touches to the exit gates and the last coat of paint was being applied to the concrete roadway on the Bathurst street bridge.

Owing to the presence of troops last year it was found necessary to change the postoffice to the educational building. Inspector Ross, after a trip to the grounds yesterday, decided to move back to the permanent quarters in the government building, where it will remain when the soldiers return.

The rain last night interrupted the rehearsal of the boy scouts, girls, and choir in front of the grand stand, but they took refuge in one of the buildings and completed the practice. The final rehearsals of all the performers in the spectacle will be held tonight and Saturday. The school children taking part in the opening day chorus will rehearse this afternoon and Saturday in the Technical school.

The civic information bureau on Yonge street has been opened again under charge of James Somers of the city clerk's department. A rest room and free telephone have been installed and Mr. Somers says indications point to an exceptionally large number of visitors attending the fair.

OFFER NURSES REST IN SWISS HOTELS

James Cusin Hears of Generous Plan Adopted Recently.

GOVERNMENT HELPING

One Thousand Eight Hundred Nurses From All Belligerent Countries.

Prof. James Cusin, president of the Toronto Swiss Society, has just received news from Switzerland, to the effect that hotelkeepers thruout the country have invited 1,800 nurses from all of the belligerent countries to rest and recuperate in Swiss hotels from their arduous duties on the battlefields.

Three weeks' stay is offered the nurses, and the invitation extends during the remainder of the summer. Seventy Red Cross nurses from France, arrived recently to accept the invitation and were accorded special welcome by a committee of women.

All the people of Switzerland are assisting in welcoming the nurses, whose work in behalf of the wounded soldiers has been so great. Railroad fare is cut fifty per cent., and every accommodation and attention is shown the visitors.

The hotelkeepers' generosity is all the more praiseworthy because of the lack of business. The Swiss Government is aiding them, however, by decreasing taxation and extending credits to the end of the war.

Temperance hotels have no share in this matter, because hotels of this kind are supported by private subscriptions for the poorer class of people unable to partake of the meals at the regular hotels.

A Message to Thin Weak Scrawny Folk

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 Pounds of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues, and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. A splendid way of working to overcome this sinful waste of flesh-building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to try Sargol, the famous flesh-building agent, that has been so widely sold in America in recent years. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and see if your cheeks don't quickly fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh form over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point.

All good druggists have Sargol or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces, as stated on the guarantee in each large package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

If you find a druggist who is unable to supply you with Sargol, sent $1.00, money order or registered letter, to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine St., Montreal, and a complete ten days' treatment will be sent you, postpaid, in plain wrapper. 56

NOTE.—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder, and, while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.
