Larry's Leafs By 5 to 2 Take Second From Birds

English Racing Season Closes Until After War

EVEN UP THE COUNT WITH THE ORIOLES

Leafs Hit Timely, and Zabel Pitches Unbeatable Ball Against Baltimore

The count is now one each in the first home series between the Leafs and the Baltimore Birds. Lerry's boys hit well behind Zabel, showed a smart brand of baseball thruout, and downed the Dunnites 5 to 2 at the local ball yard yesterday. It was a miserable day for baseball. A real wintry wind blew across the field from the east, and it took real bravery to sit thru the nine innings.

Zabel, late of the Chicago Cubs. was in excellent form and he had the Orioles well curbed up to the ninth round. In the final inning the first two Birds singled and Zabel handed out a walk to fill the stations. Dunn's men got over two runs before the side was retired. Whiteman and Lajole were the batting stars for the locals. The manager's pole accounted for one run, and Whiteman's rap in the seventh let two across. Trout lifted a sacrifice fly to make another possibile, and Thormarien supplied a wild pitch to make the total five.

The infield work on the part of the Leafs was of the sparkling variety, and it was a well-played game of ball. Baltimore also fielded well, but they could never get to Zabel in telling fashion and this tells the story. Lamar was the only Bird to have any real success with the willow. He connected safely three times, once for two stations.

Lamar epened the second with Baltimore's first hit. Williams struck out, and Blackburne pulled off a pretty play on Bues' liner. He pegged to second and Larry got the ball to first in time to complete a double play. The Leafs' half on this round produced a run Graham off at third. Trout's long fly to left let Graham beat the return home.

Baltimore got a man as far as second in the third. Blackburne grabbed Acosta's line drive, but McAvoy singled to deep short. Smith's wild peg to first let him move up to second. The next two popped out. The Leafs looked dangerous in their half. Kelly opened with a single to right and Zabel neatly secrificed. Jacobson hit sharply to the right side of the field and Lajole pulled a nice piece of coaching by making Kelly take the home stat

With two out of the way Lamar doubled in the fourth and Williams walked. Blackburne juggled Bues' roller and the bases were full. Acosta raised to Trout. The Leafs' second run came in the fourth. Jacobson singled, was moved t esecond on Lajoie's sacrifice, took third when Williams dropped the throw on Graham's roller and scored on a wild pitch. pitch.
Trout's single, Whiteman's sacrifice and Lajoie's slashing one base rap down the left field foul line made the Leafs' third run possible in the sixth. The third run possible in the sixth. The seventh spasm was a two-run session for the locals. Smith singled to right, but was thrown out trying to stretch it into a double. Kelly came along with his second single of the day, and Zabel walked. The corners were all occupied when Jacobson also got free transportation. Trout fanned after a pretty try at the squeeze play. Kelly was sent in from third and Trout met the ball for a pretty bunt. It just went inches foul down the first base line. He then struck out. Whiteman singled smartly into centre field to let two runners score. Lajole died when Bues knocked down his hard liner. tiner.

The Birds came to life in the ninth.
The first two men hit safely and Acosta was walked. McAvoy hit to short and forced Acosta at second, Williams scoring. Fewster batted for the pitcher and forced McAvoy at second and another runner scored. Truesdale ended it by lifting a high fly.

THOMPSON TO PITCH AGAINST BIRDS TODAY

Lajole hopes to make it two out of three this afternoon, when the Leafs line up against Baltimore in the third game of the series. Thompson, the sturdy little left-hander of the Leafs, who has won his last three starts, will be in the box. Sherman is likely to be Manager Dunn's pitching choice. The game will be called at 3.15. Next Wednesday the New York Americans will be here for an exhibition game with the Toronto Club. The Yangees are the best-drilled club in either big league, and they will give an exhibition of their ability in military formations before the game.

Tennis Champion Killed in Action

Victoria, B.C., May 4.—Robert Powell, singles tennis champion of British Co-humbia for years, was killed in action in France April 28, according to word re-ceived here today. Powell was an atceived here today. Powell was an attorney and was private secretary to the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia from 1900 to 1904. He founded the North Pacific Lawn Tennis Association in 1904. The next year he won the tennis championship of Scotland. In 1908 Powell was the champion of the Canadian tennis the champion of the Canadian tennis plionship of Scotland. In 1908 Powell was the champion of the Canadian tennis team which competed in the Olympic games in England, and represented Canada in the Davis Cup games in Chicago in 1918. Powell enlisted in the 48tth Canadian Battalion at the outbreak of the war and was appointed lieutenant, and went overseas with that body.

Joe Kelley, former manager of the pennant-winning Toronto teams, and now scout for the New York Americans, seems on a fair way to have another this year.

Hickman really had never had any experience with trouble, however, until wednesday, when the Yankees will play the Leafs at the Island.

It is Charlie Hickman, who way back in 1896 started out pitching baseball for West Virginia University, but who became so good that his fame spread clear over to New Castle, Pa., which was at that time in the old Inter-State League, and the wise moguls there immediately proceeded to get his signature to a contract. His experience there was of short duration, however, as his fame had spread even further and Boston, at that time supporting the leading, team in the old National League, sent its agents after him and for three years he pitched in Beantown. Then he went to the New York Giants for a couple of years; then he was seduced away from the Giants by Charlie Somers and some other good and well-known players, and here he cavorted at first base for three years; then he went to Washington for a couple of seasons, then jumped clear back to the Chicago White Sox and then back to Cleveland.

But a sprained knee suffered at Washington had limited his days in the "Big Show" and in 1909, 1910 and 1911 he was with Toledo in the American Association in the outfield; 1911 was his last. He had had 14 years of it and it was enough.

He sought the seclusion of Morgantown, but could not remain secluded, as Cleveland got hold of him and made as Cleveland got hold of him and made him act as scout during a couple of summers, and in 1913 he agreed to coach the team, but was signed up again in 1915 and again in 1917. Three years he has turned out a champion-ship team in the mountain state and seems on a fair way to have another this year.

A FARMER'S YEAR.

It is going to be the American far-mer's year, and the public interest re-quires that the farmer be encouraged and stimulated, and, if need be, aid-ed, by the governments, federal and state, to a great effort, not only of public spirit but of intelligent even state, to a great effort, not only of public spirit, but of intelligent economic self-interest. He will be entitled to his reward, if successful, and his reward will be great. As to farm labor the farmer must be assured on that point. He must have assurance that if he raises great crops those crops will not go ungathered for lack of hands. Of potential farm labor of that sort, harvest hand labor, the country has an abundance, and it would be a sorry commentary on the efficiency of our governments if efficiency of our governments if means are not found for transport, mobilization, distribution according to need, to translate that potential labor into actual.—Milwaukee Sen-

WALTER JOHNSON IS Still in Harness and Has Long Lead on Nearest Active Rival.

Eddie Plank missed his big chance of becoming shut-out king of the American Lesgue by spending one season with the Federal circuit. The official records do not give cognizance to work done in the Federal, and, therefore, the shut-out victories scored by Eddie during that year were wasted, as far as the official guide is concerned.

Walter Johnson heads Ban Johnson's circuit, but Walter has only three more shut-out than Plank, even after one good year of the Gettysburg left-hander's career is tossed into the discard. Johnson, however, is years younger than Plank, and it is almost certain that Eddie will never have an opportunity to tie Johnson's total.

Of the pitchers now doing active duty in the league, there is none close to Johnson or Plank. The next man in line of competitors is Jim Scott of the Chicago White Sox. James has a total of 25 shut-outs, less than half as many as Johnson or Plank.

THE EAGLE'S CLAWS.

There is, tho, reason for believ-ing that the sturdy talons and beak of the American bird of freedom, which have been developing in the piping times of peace, will now stand him in good stead. All Learn From Cobb, Says Fielder Jones

Ty Cobb has no more ardent admirer than Fielder Jones, manager of the Browns.

Jenes believes that there never was another ball player that could think so fast as the Georgia Gem. He credits Ty with being one of the keenest students of the game that ever lived.

"I preach Ty Cobb to my ball players day in and day out," said Fielder in discussing the southern star. "Every time we have a meeting or I get a few of the boys together, I hold him up as an example of what quick thinking and intelligence will do for a man.

"Nobody knows any more baseball than Cobb, and nobody learns more by experience than he. Every day and all day he is picking up new wrinkles about the old pastime. The trouble with the average mechanical. He goes out and plays the same style of game day after day, and falls to observe what is going on around him. If he has a weakness, instead of the screen of the Brown.

studying himself and the opponents, he just takes it for granted that he always will have this particular fault, and makes no effort it correct it.

"One of these days I hope to get Ty Cobb into a room for a good talk on baseball. It will be a treat to me if I ever do the players in a year. That fellow has more good dope in his head than anybody else in the game, and it will be worth a lot to me to get hold of him and have him give me some of it. When it comes to brainy baseball, Ty is absolutely in a class by himself."

Comming from a man that is acknowledged generally to be one of the greatest baseball strategists that ever lived, this is real praise.
