BEST DEMAND WAS FEATURELESS DAY FOR COMMON CATTLE FOR WINNIPEG GRAIN.

Lambs Are Firmer, But Hog Prices Look Lower.

With about 700 cattle all told on the Union Stock Yards market yesterday the market held around steady with Monday's prices. The demand seems to be for the light common class of cattle from 800 to 900 lbs. or thereabout, and outside of this, the market is a little out of the ordinary, the market is inclined to be pretty weak and quiet. As said before, the buyers do not seem to care very much whether they get their or not.

Special Market Note.

A feature of the exchange yesterday was the sale by Rice & White, the well-known commissionmen,
