THE ideas of some men are like steam—pretty thin even after condensation.

WIFE—"Where shall we hide the silver while we are away?" Husband—"Put it in the pockets of your dresses in the closet."

As the happy couple were leaving the church the husband said to the partner of his wedded life: "Marriage must seem a dreadful thing to you; why, you were all of a tremble, and one could hardly hear you say 'I will.'" "I will have more courage to say it louder next time," said the blushing bride.

WHEN a man treats himself repeatedly to strong drink he is generous to a fault.

MISTRESS (to new servant)—"We have breakfast generally about eight o'clock." New servant—"Well, mum, if I ain't down to it, don't wait."

"Is the lady of the house in?" he asked, as he stood on the steps of a residence on St. Charles Avenue the other evening. "Which lady of the house?" asked the girl who answered the ring. "Why, are there two?" "Sartin, sah. If you want de white lady, she am out. If you has business wid de cull'd lady, proceed to dewelop."
