Princeton University President Addresses the Canadian Club

"It is one of my deepest regrets that when Belgium was first invaded my own government did not make a strong protest," said Dr. John G. Hibben, president of Princeton University, in speaking on Our Common Cause, before the Canadian Club at Bond's last evening.

It was a strong address, a biting arraignment of the manner in which Germany makes war, a condemnation of those who hold that peace is under all circumstances and conditions the highest of all goods.

"I have never been able to understand the meaning of the word neutral from an American point of view," he said.

Dr. Hibben defined the war as a contest between autocracy and democracy, between the doctrine that might makes right and that right makes might and, he said that Germany had misinterpreted the signs of history of the past 400 years just as she had misunderstood the attitude of Great Britain.

Dr. J. H. Frink occupied the chair and introduced the speaker of the evening.

Russians March on Lemberg

Having broken the strong Austro-German line in the vicinity of Halicz, the Russians are pushing forward from Halicz towards Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, and from Stanislaw, south of Halicz, westward toward the line of the Danister.

After the capture of Halicz, on the front from Halicz to Zolotvyn, about thirty miles to the south, General Korniloff forced the Austro-Germans to about their retreat. In their advance from Halicz the Russians forced the fleeing enemy across the Lomnica and occupied two towns on the western bank of the river. The next natural barrier is the River Stoka, about six miles west of the Lomnica.

South and west of Stanislaw, the Russians have reached the Ponicz-Lesturka-Katmazz line, the central point of which, Lesturka, is four miles west of the River Bystritza. This line is about seven miles east of Katmazz, the nearest large town west of Stanislaw and which is situated in a bend of the Stoka river.

The extension of the Russian fighting line to Colotvyn brings the battle ground into the foothills of the Carpathians.

On Tuesday the Russians captured 2,000 more prisoners and thirty guns, bringing their total captures from July 8 to 10 to more than 10,000 officers and men and eighty guns.

A large amount of machine guns and war material also was taken. Berlin gives no details of Tuesday's fighting in Galicia, merely saying that: "Movements south of the Danister have been executed until now as planned."

Strikers Throw Little Light On Harris Death

Carland and O'Brien on The Witness Stand

Reference to St. Stephen

Witness Says Remark Drew Threat From Murdered Man—Tell of Their Movements on Night of Attack

The inquest into the death of Robert Harris was continued last evening by coroner Kenney. The entire evening was devoted to the evidence of Everett Carland and John O'Brien, who told of events preceding the attack and of their own movements on that night.

Last night's hearing began at 8 o'clock with a crowded court. Everett Carland, who was in jail, was brought in and placed on the stand. He told of going to the plumber's shop on June 14, of meeting his five companions, drinking for an hour or more, leaving the hall and separating at the corner of Union and Charlotte streets. Jack O'Brien asked him to come along Union street.

CHILD'S SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE

Harrison (Ont.) Father Says Dr. Cassell's Tablets Saved His Child's Life.

Mr. Corby, Harrison P. O., Ont., writes: "Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things she got no better. She just lay in her cot and cried, and neighbors all said we could not save her. The doctors said she had stomach trouble, and that her chances were small, yet Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured her. They have been worth their weight in gold to us, for we were just giving up hope of saving our little daughter. I don't think there is any other medicine for children like Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Publish this letter if you like; it may help others as the Tablets helped us."

A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address: Harold E. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCaul St., Toronto.

Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the surest home remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Trouble, Sleeplessness, Anemia, Nervous Affections, Nerve Paralysis, Pimples, and Weakness in Children. Specially valuable for nursing mothers and during the critical periods of life. Sold by druggists and storekeepers throughout Canada. Price: One tube, 50 cents; six tubes for the price of five. Beware of imitations said to contain hypophosphites. The composition of Dr. Cassell's Tablets is known only to the proprietors, and no imitation can ever be the same. Sole Proprietors: Dr. Cassell's Co., Ltd., Manchester, Eng.

Together they went down to Mill and from there to the corner of Main street. He thought it was about 10 o'clock. He left O'Brien and walked up Main street. Before going into his house he went into Ramsey's beer shop for a drink. He called, though he admitted he was under the influence of liquor, that when he entered his home his wife asked him the time to set the clock and he told her it was 10.10. Soon after he went to bed to be aroused about 12.30 by his brother-in-law who told about the arrest of Henneberry and Campbell.

The night, as he remembered, was light but a little cloudy. He wore a light checked suit (the one he now had on). He thought he had on a dark grey overcoat and a hand hat, although he may have worn a soft one.

The witness stated that Harris' name was not mentioned at the hall only when he called it out to put it on the blackboard. It was not mentioned after leaving the room.

Reference to St. Stephen.

Asked if he had followed Harris previously he replied, "Yes." He referred to an instance when he, Joe O'Brien and Livingstone were down at the railway track near the foot of Queen street. They were seated there about 5 o'clock when Harris came along. Harris, the witness continued, shouted a name at him to which the witness replied—"You had better be careful. You know what I know about you in St. Stephen." Harris replied—"Carland I'll get you before the night is out." Later, in being cross-examined by Dr. Baxter, the witness amplified this. He thought Harris said—"If you tell me of the other boys about that I'll get you before the night is out."

Carland stated that the three got up and walked along the track about a block after Harris. He would not say they were following intentionally until cross-examined by Dr. Baxter. Then he said: "I admit we were following him, to bound him, just to shame him."

The trio followed Harris to a field near his home in Pine street, when Harris shouted back something. The witness denied he made any reply to the effect that he would "get" Harris.

The witness could not place the time when he first heard of Harris being hurt. It was some time Friday, he thought. On Saturday he passed Harris' father in Charlotte street. Mr. Harris was in company with Mr. Crawford, liquor inspector, and he was pointing at the witness, "as much as to say, 'there, that's Carland.'"

Previous to June 14, the last occasion he saw Harris, was in King street, when Harris asked him if he could get him a plumber's card as he wanted to go to Toronto. He was on friendly terms with Harris, he said, and until a short while ago frequently went out with him at nights.

The witness was carefully cross-examined by Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, appearing for the city, and F. R. Taylor, K. C., appearing for the master plumbers. Dr. Baxter had in his hand a statement, presumably made out by Detective Duncan, while the latter was questioning Carland. There were some items at variance with the witness' present testimony, but nothing of importance. Carland intimated that Duncan may have made a mistake in taking down what he said.

Asked by Mr. Taylor regarding his intimacy with Harris, he remarked: "At one time we came near being brothers-in-law." He had known him for about six years.

O'Brien Tells Story.

John O'Brien, West St. John, another striking plumber, was brought from the jail to take the stand. He corroborated

In every detail the evidence given by Carland regarding what went on on the night of June 14. The witness, at the corner of Union and Charlotte street, found that Carland seemed on the point of collapse and rushed him down Union street. He saw him as far as the corner of Main and Mill streets, and left him to go home. He watched him out of sight, and then went back to take the ferry home. On the way, however, he met a West Side car and took it. He talked to the conductor, Percy Macaulay, asking him the time. The conductor said it was the 10 o'clock trip. When the witness arrived home his wife told him it was 10.30 o'clock.

A short time after this, witness said, seeing difficulties looming up, he asked Macaulay if he was sure it was the 10 o'clock trip, and the conductor replied that he was.

Asked about Harris, the witness said, he was made to him at the room. He saw his name on the blackboard, but he had soon left there, too, several days before that.

Court was adjourned, hearing to be resumed at 8 o'clock Monday evening.

WHAT DYSPETICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore, stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, and the conductor replied that he was.

Asked about Harris, the witness said, he was made to him at the room. He saw his name on the blackboard, but he had soon left there, too, several days before that.

Court was adjourned, hearing to be resumed at 8 o'clock Monday evening.

Weak, Anaemic, Nervous Run-down

WHEN your system is undermined by worry or overwork—when your vitality is lowered—when you feel "anyhow"—when your nerves are "on edge"—when the least exertion tires you—you are in a run-down condition.

Your system is like a plant that is drooping for the want of water. And just as water revives a drooping plant—so Wincarnis gives new life and new vitality to a "run-down" constitution. Because Wincarnis contains a four-fold power. It is a tonic, a restorative, a blood-builder and a nerve food—all in one. Therefore Wincarnis promotes new strength, new blood, new nerve force and new vitality.

The benefit begins from the first small dose. You can feel it doing you good. You can feel your whole system being surcharged with new vitality and new life.

A NEW OVERLAND SERVICE GARAGE

J. A. Pugsley & Co. to Operate
Large New Two Story Garage on Duke Street For Overland Owners.

With the rapidly increasing number of Overland cars owned in St. John, Messrs. J. A. Pugsley & Co. local distributors, have found it necessary to secure a larger service garage than their present premises on Chipman Hill, and have just made arrangements for the new two story garage on Duke street now in course of construction, and which they expect to be able to open to Overland owners on or about August 16.

The building is 40 feet wide by 100 feet in depth, built of brick with cement floors, and contains upwards of 8,000 square feet of floor space. The lower floor will be devoted to car storage, and the upper floor to repair shop, parts department, and offices.

The service system installed will be the same efficient system as is used in all the larger cities where the Overland Company themselves maintain very large garages for the benefit of their customers; and all the latest labor and time saving appliances are to be installed, many of which are now on the way here from the Overland plant at West Toronto.

In selecting a car service is of prime importance to the owner, as good service means lasting satisfaction. That it pays to render good service is evidenced by the large and rapidly increasing number of Overland and Willys-Knight car owners.

Five Recruits

Five recruits were secured in the city yesterday. They were—John C. Page, Dover, England; Elmer P. Bell, Canada; Harry Tanswell, Belfast, Ireland, No. 8 Field Ambulance; P. V. Cross, England, Forestry Company, and Harold Kershaw, New Bedford, Mass., Royal Navy.

Won Military Cross.

Lieutenant F. C. Hannington, of Victoria, B. C., has won the Military Cross. He is a nephew of W. T. Peters, of Rothesay. Lieutenant Hannington was born in Moncton.

Report to Ottawa.

The military court of inquiry, sitting on the death of Lance-Corporal Hamm, closed its session yesterday. Major J. P. D. Tiller presided and the report will be made up and forwarded to Ottawa immediately.

GERMAN FIRE DIMINISHED.

New York, July 11.—The American steamship Kansas, carrying a crew of fifty men, has been sunk, presumably off the French coast, according to a cablegram received here today by the France and Canada Steamship Company which chartered the vessel. The fate of those on board is not known.

The vessel was valued at $8,000,000. She carried a cargo of flour and other foodstuffs, together with 4,000 tons of steel, which, valued in all at $20,000,000, was consigned to the French government.

A LOSS OF $5,000,000.

The British official statement issued yesterday regarding the German fighting on the Yser sector, and says that the German artillery fire has diminished in intensity, the first battle being so violent that the guns were heard in London. German attempts southeast of Arras and in the vicinity of Lens on Wednesday were without success.

Violent artillery fighting marked Wednesday on the Aisne and Champagne fronts in France and east of the Meuse in the Verdun region. Northwest of Zila, on the Carro, the Italians have occupied the Austrian town of Dolina.
