After Prayer, by the Rev. S. Bancroft, the Secretary of the General Missionary Board, presented his accounts and made the following report from the Local Boards :

No Missionaries have been employed during the past year by the General Board.

The report of the Fredericton Board shows that the receipts of that Board, during the past year, including £20 received from the Association, are £69 10 9, the expenditure of the Board £72 7 8. That 29 weeks' Missionary labour has been performed by ordained Ministers, and 6 weeks by Licentiates ; 129 Sermons preached, and various other meetings attended. Through the Divine blessing on the labours of these Missionaries, sinners have been converted, backsliders reclaimed, and infant Churches strengthened and encouraged. The Quarterly Meetings as recommended, by the Association, have been regularly attended to, and continue to exert a favorable influence.

The account of the Saint John Board shows an increased amount of Missionary zeal in the district connected with the operations of that Board. The receipts for the past year, including £20 from the Association, are £107 6 11½. The expenditure £117 10 9½, and encouraging reports have been received from the several Missionaries employed.

From the Charlotte Board we learn that the Quarterly Meetings have been kept up in that section of the Province, and collections made at those Meetings in aid of the Missionary Fund. The receipts of this Board for the year, including £20 from the Asso-
