H. J. ANDERSON IS DEAD IN RENFORTH

A Former Newspaper Man and Manager of Opera House

Herbert J. Anderson, former magistrate in Renforth, and for many years in newspaper life in St. John, died at his home in Renforth at 10 o'clock this morning after a long illness following a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Anderson was a son of James and Sarah Anderson. His father was for many years shipping editor of the Daily Telegraph in the times when the paper was owned or commanded or managed the sailing vessels which made this port famous the world over.

Herbert Anderson was in early life a stock broker in Bangor, Maine, returning to St. John he joined the staff of the Evening Gazette, published by the late John A. Bowers, and became city editor. When the Gazette ceased publication, Mr. Anderson engaged in varied activities and then became manager of the Opera House and secretary of the company. The latter position he held at the time of his death. He had made his home at Renforth for some years and for a period until ill health caused his retirement, was magistrate there, dealing principally with traffic law violations. He was an active Liberal in politics and was chairman of assessors of Rothesay parish.

Mr. Anderson was gifted with a facile pen, an alert mind and companionable qualities that made him a great favorite. He was much interested in theatricals and had to do with some of the big amateur productions in the city some years ago. Soon after the jubilee of 1877 he himself painted a large picture illustrating the great fire and he took this through the Maritime Provinces and exhibited it to raise funds for relief of the fire sufferers. He was always in demand for illustrated performances and such like and was very ready to assist.

Mr. Anderson is survived by his wife, who was Miss Emma Maxwell of North End, and by five children; also six sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. J. M. Perkins of St. John, Mrs. Clarence Ward of Chicago, Mrs. E. E. Beaumont of Montreal and Misses Helen, Edith and Annie, at home. The brothers are E. M. of St. John, Arthur E. of Montreal and William E. also of St. John. They will have the sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement. The funeral will be held at 8 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

DESTRUCTIVE BOYS.
A juvenile appeared in the Police Court yesterday afternoon charged with throwing stones in Queen Square, West St. It appears that for some time boys have been breaking electric lamps in that section and also smashing fire alarm boxes. A complaint was made to the police and efforts to learn the identity of the culprits have been made. Sergeant O'Neill caught this boy throwing stones, but not see him smash any lighters. He was summoned to court as a warning to others. Magistrate Henderson severely lectured him and allowed him to go home after he had promised to stop this practice.

SOCIAL ENJOYED.
The members of the Young People's League of Carleton Methodist church enjoyed their monthly social in the school room last evening. E. J. Sharpe of Montreal was in the city yesterday, endeavoring to make arrangements for the early appearance here of the new "Maid of the Mountains" opera company, which opens its Canadian tour in Ontario last evening. The Imperial Theatre was booked, also Halifax and Moncton, but because of being unable to secure corresponding rates in some between "jumps" it was considered impracticable to bring the large organization into this territory at this time. It may be arranged later.

Tighe, international organizer of the I. L. A.

NO CONFERENCE YET.
The Mayor reported this morning that he had been notified that Hon. Dr. Baxter, M. P., city solicitor, would not be in the city until noon tomorrow, and that Hon. Dr. Smith, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, would be here for a few hours this afternoon, and nothing further had been done about a conference.

OPEN INSTITUTE ON NOVEMBER 15

Council of Church of England Organization Completes Its Plans.

Plans for the formal opening of the enlarged building were made at the meeting of the council of the Church of England Institute held last night with Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, the president, in the chair. A large hall has been built in the rear of the building, the library has been removed to double rooms on the eastern side of the building and the bookstore occupies the entire space of the western side, while the reading room has been considerably enlarged. A new kitchen has been built opening off the large hall in the rear and offices for the secretary of the synod have also been arranged. Funds for the work were provided in the generous gift of $10,000 which was made by the late Senator W. H. Thorne. The members of the council were delighted with the new premises when they inspected them last night.

It was decided to have the formal opening on Thursday, Nov. 15, in the evening and it was hoped that His Lordship Bishop Richardson might be present on that occasion. A programme of speeches and music was arranged.

It was reported that several donations towards the furnishing, which had not been provided for in Senator Thorne's gift, had been received and these were gratefully acknowledged. Several new members were elected. Preparations were made for holding the annual church services of the Institute. The services, it was decided should be held on Tuesday of this week. The celebration of Holy Communion was to be in Trinity church this morning and the annual service in St. Paul's church this evening, when the preacher was to be Rev. Dr. W. W. Leonard, of Rothesay Collegiate School.

BREAD WAGON IS SMASHED; 1 HURT

Horse Runs Away; Tries to Shoot Across in Front of a Car.

Market Square at its busiest hour—between 12 and 1 o'clock today was the scene of a series of accidents in which a bakery wagon of the Independent Bakery Co. and street car took prominent parts and which inflicted considerable damage to the many people who were thereabouts at the time. As a result the bakery wagon stands in front of the Bank of N. A. building with its top badly shattered and the driver, Harry Bamford, 58 Sewell street, is confined to his home suffering from bruises about the legs and general shock.

Bamford was driving along Prince William street about 12:15 o'clock when his horse became unmanageable and bolted. He headed across Market Square at a terrific rate and in an effort to pull him up Bamford placed his feet against the dashboard and pulled steadily on the reins. The dashboard gave way and the driver fell to the ground between the horse's heels and the whiffletree. He was dragged for about eight yards between the front wheels before he let go of the reins and the wagon passed over him without the wheels touching him. The horse continued in his mad career across the square until he reached the foot of Dock street where he met a street car. The animal dashed across in front of the car but before the wagon had cleared the tracks the street car had hit it full broadside, turning the vehicle on its side and throwing the horse on to the sidewalk. Bread and buns were scattered about, Policeman Young was on the scene in a few minutes and, with the aid of some passers-by, secured the animal and righted the overturned vehicle. The ambulance responded to his call, Policeman Duffy accompanying it.

As Bamford did not seem to be severely hurt, his request to be taken home was complied with. He was quite badly bruised in one knee but the horse escaped injury. The wagon is almost a complete wreck, but no serious damage was done to the street car.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. "Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I was thinking just now about an alligator. Why has he got such long jaws and so many teeth?"

"Then it ain't a burnin' question," said Hiram.

"Well, to tell you the truth," replied the reporter, "I have often thought about it. Why couldn't an alligator get along with at least two feet less of jaws and teeth?"

"Any alligators round here?" asked Hiram.

"Oh, no," said the reporter.

"Likely to be any?" persisted Hiram.

"I fancy not," said the reporter.

"Why, of course not."

"Then it ain't a burnin' question," said Hiram.

"Quite right—quite right," said the reporter.

"You're like a hull lot more folks," quoth Hiram. "Why don't dollars grow on trees? How much ice is there on the North Pole? Why don't we get younger instead of older? Kin you give me mental exercise like that by the yard? S'posen you turn your mind to something 'nuth' white. Why ain't St. John folks gittin' together more to go after things they orto hev? Why ain't we all plannin' to git pore tourists to come here an' spend money? Why ain't we workin' harder to git noo industries? Why ain't we sawin' more wood every way? You can't change the alligator—but you kin do a lot to boost the town. Go to it—By Hen!"
