BASEBALL.

To Form Independent League.

There is a proposal to form an independent baseball league composed of teams from Moncton, Amherst and Springfield. The scheme is being promoted by Bill Stewart, the crack hockey player, who is confident that such a league would be a big attraction.

RING.

Canadian Championships.

Calgary, April 22.—C. C. Huckvale of Medicine Hat took his turn at trying to solve the mysterious attack of that demon Winnipeg youth, Don Rowand, at the Canadian amateur boxing championship tournament last night, when they clashed in the final of the welterweight championship. He fell considerably short of his mark, running to second position in a battle that lasted but forty seconds.

Junior championship—Class B, final—Gus Gideon, Victoria A. C., outpointed J. Scott, Victoria A. C., after an extra round.

Light heavyweight, final—R. Kronick, Calgary, easily outpointed Lira Keller, New Dayton.

Lightweight, final—James McGuirk, Bank Head, decisively outpointed F. J. Noonan, Calgary.

Welterweight, final—Don Rowand, Winnipeg, knocked out C. C. Huckvale, Medicine Hat, in first round.

Middleweight, final—C. C. Huckvale, won by default.

Dempsey to France.

London, April 22.—Jack Dempsey, with Jack Kearns, his manager, and Teddy Hayes, his trainer, and two other members of his party, will leave today for Paris to begin a tour of the continent which will last for about a fortnight.

Hayes said last night that when Dempsey returns to London before the Capentier-Lewis bout on May 11, he probably will give an exhibition, though no arrangements have been made.

Buff-Lynch Bout Off.

New York, April 22.—The bout between Johnny Buff and Joe Lynch for the world's bantamweight championship, which was to have been held in Madison Square Garden on May 5, was called off owing to the illness of Buff.

CRICKET.

Canadian Team to England.

Arrangements have now been completed for a tour of England by Canadian cricketers, under the captaincy of Norman Segrain. They will leave Montreal for Southampton on Wednesday, July 19, on the Canadian Pacific S. S. Melita, arriving in Southampton on July 21.

The team will make their headquarters at the Hotel Cecil, London, and they will return to Canada on August 31, sailing on the S. S. Victoria, arriving at Montreal about September 8.
