TO RESTRAIN NATIONALIST DEPUTY SPEAKER BLONDIN

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Asks For Ruling But Gets Little Satisfaction—E. F. Smith West Beyond His Rights

Ottawa, March 5.—A resolution based upon British tradition and precedent was introduced in the house this afternoon by Sir Wilfrid Laurier calling upon the government to enforce the rule regarding the deputy-speaker being placed in the same class with the speaker of the house as regards his taking an active part in electoral contests. Sir E. Blondin, Nationalist, who won notoriety through his "Shook-holes-through-the-British-flag" utterances is deputy-speaker and when he took the position it was with the understanding on Premier Borden's part that he would refrain from fiery speeches. When the Chateauguay by-election was on, Mr. Blondin was there in person, though he told Mr. Borden he made no speeches.

The premier, in reply to Sir Wilfrid, said he thought there was no necessity for a hard and fast rule with regard to the deputy speaker.

In response to E. M. McDonald of Pictou, N. S., Mr. Borden said that if any announcement were to be made with regard to a loan to the C. N. R. it would be forthcoming in due course.

Dr. Roche, in reply to Mr. Carvell with regard to timber cut on the Tobique Indian reserve, said that B. F. Smith had been given a license to cut burnt timber, and had cut green in violation of his right.
