GARDEN PARTY.

Something new in the way of garden parties was given at the Portland Methodist parlance yesterday afternoon and evening. It was planned and carried out by the men of the organization and was a great success. The shower made it necessary to serve supper indoors, but about 200 people were served. The occasion gave the congregation an opportunity to view the new parlance left by Mrs. Louise Wilson as a memorial to her father, the late James Harris. Charles Williston, of Halifax, won the guest contest. Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Clarke greeted their numerous guests.

Those in charge of the garden party were congratulated on their excellent management. The conveners and members of committees were as follows: Chair, D. G. Lingley; superintendent, J. A. Kennedy; refreshments, R. J. A. Corbett; advertising, J. P. Steel; decorations, R. C. Thomas; members of committees, A. C. Powers, F. S. Thomas, George McConnell, Solomon McConnell, William McIntosh, R. T. Hayes, S. A. Kirk, D. White, F. Merrill, H. P. Breen, F. Smiler, B. L. Kirkpatrick, L. Munro, Allan Lingley, S. Johnston.
