ge, Matsqui; 3, J. T

to 1 year-J. T. May nths-1, J. T. Maynard; 3, H. F. Page. d two sows, any age,

I year and over—1, J. H. F. Page; 3, J. T.

by exhibitor-1, J. T.

ge; 3, J. T. Maynard. of her offspring, all or, under 6 months-nd over-1, W. Bamby exhibitor-1. W year and over-1 and 3, C. H. Gillan, Turto 1 year-1, W. Bam nonths-1, W. Bam

d Berkshife. nd over-1, Shannon months-1, 2 and 3, by exhibitor. Special 1 year and over of her offspring, all or, under 6 months-

d two sows any age d China. nths-W. Bamford kshires. d over-1, C. H. Gil-

ND APIARY. mb honey in sections, le condition for relay-1, Francis H. 2, Mrs. H. Smith quid extracted honey package for retail-glazed for retailing Francis H. Jones; 2, ees wax-Francis H

PORTMENT.

Mrs. H. F. Langton, Mulholland, Victoria n may include archii, Victoria; 2, Mrs. H.

McTavish. print from the orust be exhibited with

Girl Under 16 Years vater color - Phyllis -Miss V. A. Watson, tline only-Mary Le d (no color)-Mary Le nal) Professionals and

rtraits-Claude Rivaz, rine-1, Miss Wills; 2, s; highly commended, flowers, etc., from na-Miss L. Bone; 2, Miss Water Color Cray-Etc.

2, Miss Edythe Croft, rine-1 and 2. Miss E. very highly commend Victoria. lictoria; 2, Miss E. J.

Miscellaneous Draw-Original.) rine-1, Capt. J. D. Miss Lenore Black, mended, H. O.

lowers, etc., from na-Phyllis Wollaston: 2, drawing, freehand — nick, Victoria.

lg on China. cups and saucers-1, wper. Victoria. plates-1, Miss Edith l piece-1, Miss Edith conventional decoradith G. Cowper. lecorated china - 1, wper.

ellaneous. relief-1 Miss Wilhip-Mrs. Will John-landscape or marine be exhibited-1, Roy ndscape or marine (or Wollaston; 2, Murial be exhibited-1, Leonimal or figure (copy) chibited-1, Leonard Webster, Victoria. the fair was not very orning, a fine mist bout 7 o'clock and hing except the spirits now. The dampness

ount to a rain

ne was carried out to evidence around the od many visitors from one of good fellowship per- out.

the tables.

outh Saanich firm should be proud.
Bishop & Clarke, of Victoria, also to the latest importation. ried off a number of prizes in Jerseys, the list including two first prizes, two seconds and two thirds. The Jerwith one first, two seconds and two thirds. Smith Brothers, of Victoria, obtained first prize for milking cow, one that was bred by H. Bonsall, of Duncans. The competition was keen but the cattle were hardly in good condition as in some seasons. The table ladies and enjoy the pleasant conversation of the gental hostesses free of charge.

The Ladies of the Maccabees also are the first prize for milking cow, who wish to remain for the evening instead of going home, take tea with the hospitable ladies and enjoy the pleasant conversation of the gental hostesses free of charge.

The Ladies of the Maccabees also are

This is a poor time of year for poul-In spite of this, the exhibit is a In spite of this, the exhibit is a fine one. The legiorns are the nature to refresh t numerous breeds and the competition of th hat a detailed criticism is impossible. very fine looking horse, animal or other rather a later period than the four-postpigeons the white Jacobins, shown sight. Lang, are very pretty birds. One of them bows continuously to all and sundry, and is a most valuable bird. The white fan tails, one of which is a shaker, owned by George Martin, and the crested fan tails shown by Aland the creates a create the creates a create the creates the creates a create the creates the create the same house with the poultry ustrated in a practical way.

additionally high. t night someone broke into the tents of the Maccabees and the Y. A. In the former they stole al-all the cake the ladies had on was the summary last night at ter proved too good for him, however, was the summary last night at the proved too good for him, however, and had no difficulty in bringing him back to the corral. and dull. Large numbers of visit-before. Much of this had not been appreciation.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

ands almost before some of the judged, but the constant stream of people who spent a good deal of time noon a stockman's dinner was around the tables showed the interest the restaurant, when all the which is being taken in the industry. heavils, in fairly easy fashion. The calculation of the grounds were the Many people come to the show to find s of the Agricultural Association. out what kind of fruit to plant in the large number present and new orchards which they are laying tors a good run in the helt competition. were a large number present and new orchards which they are laying tors a good run in the belt competition.

There is a large crowd present, records by a good deal. The competi- "cayuse" with the skill of an accompmuch enthusiasm is being shown. It ion was exceedingly keen. Messrs. lished rider.

One fire in the cellar is easier to attend, is cleaner and is in every way handless the control of the the morning, the Polled Angus catthe morning, the Polled Angus cathe morning, the Foliad Angus car-losing up the work in that part of exhibition. The judges worked all day and got through the all day and got through the after part of the work of judging the even should make a point of doing so, that keen rivalry which always makes as nothing can be seen anywhere else broncho-busting an ideal attraction.

cludes a bull and four cows; first and very much to the attractiveness and give one of them to any enterprising cond for yearlings, and second and value of the exhibition. Mr. Hadwen's amateur who can retain his seat even black stallion went Mercer's horse a for a short space of time. hird for young herd. This is a re-markable record, and one of which the couth Saanich firm should be proud.

Diack stainon went Mercel's hotors close shave for the premier honors when judged, but the award was given

There was a band concert throughout

Rest Tents. we seconds and two thirds. The Jereys are all in the best condition, beter than last year in spite of the dry leason.

The rest tents which have been erected by the different ladies' societies have been much appreciated by visitors who have tired of the sight-seeing but who wished to remain for the later events. The rest tents which have been erecthave tired of the sight-seeing but who wished to remain for the later events. The Y. M. C. A. Ladies' Auxiliary have their tent in a very prominent place with a big sign above it. The daily papers, magazines, and Y. M. C. A. Special literature are to be obtained there and also light lunches with tea or coffee. Many of the friends of the jungles have treed in those lines are very high class, far above the average and in number they excel previous years.

H. Bonsall carried off the largest institution as well as total strangers wished to remain for the later events. The Y. M. C. A. Ladies' Auxiliary have their tent in a very prominent place with a big sign above it. The daily papers, magazines, and Y. M. C. A. Special literature are to be obtained there and also light lunches with tea or coffee. Many of the friends of the institution as well as total strangers visited the tent and enjoyed the hospitally and they did as well as usual last night.

Throughout the evening. Her voice miled the hall and could be heard almost as well downstairs as up. On each occasion she received well-deserved applause, and the crowd would not be satisfied until she had responded to encores. The Watson family are always entertaining, and they did as well as usual last night.

Throughout the evening. Her voice miled the hall and could be heard almost as well downstairs as up. On each occasion she received well-deserved applause, and the crowd would not be satisfied until she had responded to encores. The Watson family are always entertaining, and they did as well as usual last night.

Throughout the evening the she received well-deserved applause, and the crowd would not be satisfied until she had responded to encores. The Watson family are always entertaining, and they did as well as usual last night.

tallty of the institution.

The Dauhgters of Pity have their tent just alongside the entrance to the grounds and they, too, serve light refreshments in a daintily furnished tent, with one first, two seconds and two hirds. Smith Brothers, of Victoria, this is a poor time of year for poulars many of them are just moultIn spite of this, the exhibit is a poor time of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult

In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this, the exhibit is a provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of the macrophic provide them are just moult
In spite of the macrophic provide them are just moult
In spite of the macrophic provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moult
In spite of this provide them are just moul earance. What does not please one pleases an-Fred Jamleson shows some white other, and everyone is pleased. Old

The Poultry.

Broncho Busting.

lways a great deal of expense conted with the showing of cattle and gave an excellent exhibition of tenaciousness on Okanagan, a buck-jump with the exhibits makes the expense content of the lines additionally high light of the lines additionally high light of the lines and light of the lines are provided by the lines additionally high light of the lines and light of the lines are provided by the lines are toria. Hardly had Richter mounted than his broncho went to the ground, imprisoning the rider's right leg under it. The champion stuck to his guns, or it. The champion stuck to his guns, or it is just outside the main entrance to the show and is made in two styles, more correctly broncho, however, in all the cake the ladies had on while in the latter they found it great style, and won round after round of applause for the civer way in while in the latter they found it of applause for the clever way in which he retained his seat on the cavorting pony. Okanagan, failing to cavorting pony. Okanagan, failing to of fence which is preferred by some hundred dollars ahead of last through the paddock gate and finally made his way to the race track. Richmalleable iron and are so strong that they are exhibiting their work in the derived by the bad treatment which the derived by the bad t came to appreciate. The fact of natter is, the show was a wonder mounted the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attendance of the bad tempered little bromphy who had not been in attenda who had not been in attending the past year or two. It expected that the developexpected that the develop-ould have been as great in so in sticking to his saddle. The roan with any kind of stove. The tops of time. The fruit especially, even resorted to some of the meanest tricks at one time it was said that it performed by wicked horses, but the the usual way but simply rubbed with There is one exhibit which is a conone time it was said that it performed by wicked horses, but the small, is as large almost as intrepid Basil could not be budged.

There is one exhibit which is a contribution of the usual way but simply rubbed with stant source of annoyance to the eter-and was dealt with very fully in the Sockeye in spite of its spasmodic upheavils, in fairly easy fashion. The a thorough horseman. the tables.

clearing up of the weather this department of the snow should be made by anyone who is contemplating the contemplation of the weather this everything else. The number of entries fied the persistent efforts of Cohoe to ling getting any such work done, ces, which are the feature of the and the quality of the animals beat all throw him, and mastered his frolicking ity of some of the horses makes races this year far ahead of anythough it gave them difficulty in decidso that visitors will be able to take in in that line heretofore, and in-ing the merits of the respective animals this peculiarly facinating feature of the interest in all the events. The roadsters are the exhibition each day.

In Jerseys the Quick Brothers carin Jerseys the Quick Brothers carin this part of the country which in
in this part of the country which in
in this part of the country which in any way approaches it.

The importations of T. L. Mercer of Markdale, aftracted the attention of all lass; first and second in two year olds; first for calf; first for aged herd, which country which in
in this part of the country which in
in this part of the country which in any way approaches it.

The importations of T. L. Mercer of Markdale, aftracted the attention of all horse lovers. The fine stallions and marked lovers and second in two year olds;
first for aged herd, which marked lovers and second in two year olds;
which are also and the country which in any way approaches it.

The importations of T. L. Mercer of Markdale, aftracted the attention of all horse lovers. The fine stallions and mentioned that the association will give one of them to any extensively the evening, and the selections were interspersed with solos by Miss Jennie H. Edmonds, of Seattle, and instru-provide them with dainties of a light nature to refresh and reinvigorate the ment. It is a Gerard-Heintzman Miniature Grand in mahogany case, style special Attractions.

Special Attractions.

Special Attractions.

Large numbers of the visitors prefer the charms of Laurita, or the bowling departments for choice prizes offered by the different occupants of the tents to the mad rush of the horses or the frantic efforts of the broncos to rid birds with a hood of feathers which gives them a very grand motherly appearance.

Special Attractions.

Large numbers of the visitors prefer the charms of Laurita, or the bowling departments for choice prizes offered by the different occupants of the tents to the mad rush of the horses or the frantic efforts of the broncos to rid themselves of their unwelcome load. There is something doing everywhere. What does not please one pleases an pleases and powerful in tone, while the touch is absolutely perfect. This magnificent instrument was awarded first prize and gold medal at the Toronto Exposition, and Messrs. Fifetcher Bros. are to be congratulated upon securing this valuable addition to Victoria's none too large list of high class grand pianos.

There is something doing everywhere. What does not please one pleases an way. The light artistic touches of flowers, lighting and other decorative effects lend a charm was averaged and almost all the subscience of the visitors prefer the charms of Laurita, or the bowling and exceptionally sweet and powerful in tone, while the touch is absolutely perfect. This magnificent instrument was awarded first prize and gold medal at the Toronto Exposition, and Messrs. Fifetcher Bros. are to be congratulated to the effect is very fine, but the effect is very much the effect is very much the effect is very fine, but the eff

Weiler Bros. Fred Jamlesor shows some white inforcas, the only ones in the show and in fact the whole exhibit is one period of. The judging this morning was not completed and one of the obuses was closed for that purpose so ouses was closed for that purpose so ouses was closed for that purpose so over the looking horse animal or other. Weiler Bros' bedroom is one of the attractions of the fair. The two century ago style of furniture is one which is picturesque as well as useful. The bed is rather a later period than the four rest. er, yet is by no means modern. The whole room strikes one as calculated to led bird. As there was not any competition only second prizes were awarded who want something cheap and effectively

The new design of stall for cattle, sians that were admired by all visitors.

Specially of milking cows, has been il
Broncho Busting.

The new design of stall for cattle, sians that were admired by all visitors.

In connection with the same com-The broncho busting contest opened Canadian Carriage Company, showing pany is the carriage exhibit of quintette of riders prepared their truggling mounts in the corral, the struggling mounts in the corral, the bicklish operation of saddling the poplars." To-morrow they will find to gether at the Poolle by the husky cowpunchers, only one the fair grounds, and to-morrow night they will fidne together at the Poolle Dog restaurant in the city.

There are some complaints from exhibitors and would-be exhibitors that the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did the special rates on the E. & N. did them.

The poplars." To-morrow they will the main building the B. C. Hardware Company have two stalls, in one of which the De Laval separator is the favorite everywhere, being used by no less than go the creamer requires is also handled by the min building the B. C. Hardware Company have two stalls, in one of which the De Laval separator is the favorite everywhere, being used by no less than go the creamer requires is also handled by the min building the B. C. Hardware Company have two stalls, in one of which the De Laval separator is the favorite everywhere, being used by no less than go the creamer to the city and provinge. Because the provided ware Company have two stalls, in one of which the De Laval separator is the favorite everywhere, being used by no less than go the creamer of the creamer of the country. Nearly a million machines have already been sold and the reason for its popularity is the fact than the country have the business. They was s here, is the fencing department. The Kokomo wire fence is so well known that it hardly needs extolling. The expeople and that is the Pioneer fence which is also there on exhibition.

A. & W. Wilson. A. & W. Wilson.
A. & W. Wilson make a specialty of Monarch ranges. These are made of Blatchford, of Calgary, "busted" at the same time does away with the is the Phoenix Brewery exhibit, which excellent advertisement of the capa- leagues lived up to their motto there drudgery.

The Colonist. The Colonist Printing & Publishing He is a well built and supple rider and a thorough horseman at this department of the show should handier for the housewife than a half a dozen fires in different parts of the house. The house is always warm and the fuel that may be burnt is often of no value elsewhere. Watson & Mcbill exactly. It is easy to install, not very expensive and is guaranteed to keep the house warm and not to create dust. It is known as the Pease Economy and is used very locality on the mainland.

Watson & McGregor.

Newton & Greet nave a little corner the bulk of the outside visitors attend, and this is the first step toward having district exhibits from every locality on Vancouver Island as well as the mainland.

Which should characterize every union then district exhibits from every locality on Vancouver Island as well as the mainland.

Rev. J. Sherman Wallace, of Tacoma president of the B.Y.P.U. of Western the bulk of the outside visitors attend, and this is the first step toward having district exhibits from every locality on Vancouver Island as well as the president of the B.Y.P.U. of Western the bulk of the outside visitors attend, and this is the first step toward having district exhibits from every locality on Vancouver Island as well as the president of the B.Y.P.U. of Western the bulk of the outside visitors at the first step toward having district exhibits from every locality on Vancouver Island as well as the president of the bulk of the outside visitors at the district exhibits from every locality on the mainland. Gregor have a furnace which fills the Economy and is used very largely in Alberta. Even in the town of Calgary there are two homes are two largers and the control of the control o there are two hundred of them in use and ninety of these have been installed during the past season, thus showing that they are growing in favor.

About four thousand people attended officers and doing the regular business of the association, but the members ly twice as many as were there on the corresponding day of leaf year. John Meston.

John Meston sells carriages. The peo-B. C. Soap Co.

The White Swan Soap people are keeping the ladies guessing, not slang-ily, but literally. The ones who cor-rectly guess the ily, but literally. The ones who correctly guess the weight of the two swans swimming in the pond, and those which has been arranged by F. M. Logan. In the sheep alone there were hort fourteen entries and numbers. will be rewarded to the extent of $52, the highest prize being $15. The birds are quite at home in their new quarters and seem rather to pride themselves on being the centre of attrac-

Hinton Company. gasoline engine, which is kept working all the time. Wonderful regularity and smoothiness characterizes the action, and its economical qualities are equally apparent. This engine can use "dislate" instead of gasoline. Dislate is a horses by the judges, Messrs. Tabor, water, or is thrown out of gear.

David Spencer Company are to be congratulated on the great interest that is being taken in their dining room at the other other decorative effects lend a charm to the room which make it simply an ideal furnishing scheme. The pictures on the walls are classic of art, and everything shows the master touch in the arrangements.

E. G. Prior & Co.

Every farmer visits the show room of E. G. Prior & Co., alongside the chicken department of the exhibition.

William Mable. admired by everyone, the sleekness of their coats, the fine condition and the general air of content which pervades them makes them an unique exhibit. He carried off everything possible in hards in a dozen more classes.

Exhibition Notes.

The new design of stall for cattle, especially of milking cows, has been it. especially of content which pervades the fencing the four horse power which inday be the four horse power which linds the four horse power which linds the four horse power which linds be provided the family conveyance and has a thread to portable gasoline engine which linds be provided the family conveyance and has a very elegant appearance. Another right that Victoria should be provided the family conveyance and has a very elegant appearance. Another right to horse power of the staffilm. Strathcona the first point to make the d photographs is out of the running, and also went to the Pembertons.

Hibben & Co.

T. W. Paterson won a number of photography.

F. Norris & Sons.

s better than and came out victor amid a storm of had not been appreciation.

Times on Monday. The fruit has stood the old bad-smelling lead polish, and ing for something out of a bottle. That shows the many tempting ways in which the product of that institution of Victoria. Although no great excan be put up. The clarity of the pense has been taken with the decora-

Thorpe & Co.

Newton & Greer.

Newton & Greer have a little corner

About four thousand people attendple who buy these carriages never come back again because they last as long as the One Hoss Chaise. The exhibit of these carriages is in the example of the columns of the hibit of these carriages is in the same quently than words of the interest building with the B. C. Hardware Co. on the opposite side. There is a good selection of buggies and rigs of all kinds and anyone who is interested in driving should visit this part of the exhibition.

*

Quently than words of the interest that is being taken in the show, both by citizens and by the residents of the outlying districts who are coming to recognize the value of attending the central exhibition where they exhibition. can get more information in a day than at any other place in a month. Perhaps the most interesting event which has been arranged by F. M. THE DENOMINATIONS of others did private judging for them selves which they were able to con pare with the judges' results. In that department as well as in the swine the stock after the competition and gave his reasons for each decision. The Hinton Electric Company are making a special display of their Union time, so that those who took part late" instead of gasoline. Dislate is a crude oil costing about eleven cents a with the draught horses, and Kidd with away when the propeller leaves the year.

which are running each other close in matter of interest. One is the horse made by T. L. Mercer has added much to the amount of interest being taken in that department of the exhibition.

This is the eighteenth trip that Mr.

The importation of pure bred horses that their visit to Victoria would be profitable to them and at the same in that department of the exhibition.

This is the eighteenth trip that Mr.

Which Pay W. Rarraglough delivered

In a large tent opposite that of E. G. show, said he thought the parade yes- branches of Christian workers in one Clydesdale stallion, is an importation of Mercer's, having been in the postimately connected with the Epworth session of the present owners for the League movement of the Methodist some arch has been creeded in S. Stetalls have been constructed and are being occupied by Jersey cows. A small most auspiciously yesterday afternoon and furnished a continual round of excitement for over an hour. The big crowd manifested keen interest as the design with very little adverse criticism.

The broncho busting contest opened most auspiciously yesterday afternoon and furnished a continual round of excitement for over an hour. The big crowd manifested keen interest as the quintette of riders prepared their struggling mounts in the corral, the "Made in Victoria" is the motto of the present owners for the past two years. He is a dark bay with white hind legs and has sired a numwhite hind legs and has sired a number of foals here which have taken weath personal evangelism, and if the naught. prizes. Among these were the winners

A. H. Maynard has everything that a photographer needs in his little stall near the front entrance to the main half of the stall sides these in the roadsters they captured first in brood mares, yearling. and foals. This was a particularly ing pucture outfits, cameras of all and foals. This was a particularly makes and designs. The taking of photographs has become such a uni-versal art that a camera is looked upon grounds. The first for ladles' saddle almost as a necessity instead of a lux-ury. The person who does not take well as the best team of carriage horses not do better than call round and talk prizes from the Imriholme farm, and the matter over with Mr. Maynard, there were a number of other fine aniwho likes nothing better than to talk mals in the show which made it an honor to win with such competition.

Mention has been before made of the Chilliwack district exhibit, which has been much admired, and which is put up with so much skill and taste. There which was not entered for competition but which shows a very high degree of excellence. The one alluded to is from Cowichan. The fruit, vegetables and other entries were shown at the disliquid as shown through the glass bottles speaks well for the quality of the Victoria water and the local supply of malt and hops.

District Exhibit

Thorpe & Co. Those who like the softer brand of parisons are always odious, but this exhibit is able to hold its own with any the sun outside caused a dryness which which they have tried to help the Vic-

MET IN CONVENTION

and beef cattle, J. M. Gardhouse placed Gatherings of the Methodist, Baptist and Congregational Workers Held Last Night.

Taking advantage of the fact that the Provincial Christian Endeavor congallon instead of forty cents, so that the machine works at about one-third with the machine works at about one-third with the draught horses, and kind with the draught horses, of the cost of a gasoline engine. It has lar this feature is and tends to indi- last night. The Methodist Epworth attached a governor which regulates cate that the feature will be continued Leagues met in the Metropolitan the speed, thus preventing its running as a regular part of the fair every church, the Baptist Young People's Union assembled in Emmanuel church This afternoon there are two events and the Congregationalists met in the day of the congress of German scientists

The chair was taken by Rev. W. H. There is quite a general feeling that the prize should go to a native son or daughter but imported stock will be given an equal chance.

The chair was taken by Rev. W. H. Barraclough, of New Westminster. An address of welcome by Rev. W. E. Dunham, of the James Bay Methodist church, was extended to the visit-distribution. The importation of pure bred horses made by T. L. Mercer has added much that their visit to Victoria would be were found to have registered about 145 and sundry, and is a most valuable and sundry and is a most valuable and sundry.

In the poultry department, although and are to the call the prize list is not officially announced, are to be seen blue, red and yellow it is so be seen blue, red and yellow it is one cases almost over in the contended of the sublibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time or the exhibition. They are all interested at this time o Mr. Mercer, in speaking about the vened, followed by a union of all the

An effort was made this morning to Washington, gave an excellent addres have a meeting of the Agricultural Association for the purpose of electing showed that courage was of the great the corresponding day of last year, Up partmental work, and so it was de- gle against sin. The lecture was an in to 11 o'clock this morning the Asso- cided to postpone the meeting to the centive to his hearers and very mucl vention was being held in this city this Epworth League.

People opened in the Emmanuel chu last evening, with Rev. Reroy Dakir president of the union, presiding. Emmanuel Church Union, The speake drinks are attracted more to the mineral waters on the stand of Thorpe & building. The people of Cowichan

Co. On the opening day the heat of have been most cordial in the way in different parts of the province a heart An appropriate reply was given b only such a brand of drink as this could satisfy. The many flavors, brands, and colors are all shown and seem to invite closer contact.

Which they have tried to help the Victoria Association, and the fact is fully appreciated in this city. It is being recognized by the country districts that they miss a good deal by not being an inspiring one to the hearers. The represented at the central show, where speaker outlined the guiding prince the bulk of the outside visitors at- which should characterize every union upon "The Man Who was Afraid." H est importance in connection Christian work. Aggressive Chris tianity was what counted in the strug enjoyed by all.

Baptist Young People's Union.

The convention of the Baptist Youn

An address of welcome was delivere

Miss Cocker, of Calvary B.Y.P.U. then gave a solo, which was very mucl Congregationalists. The Congregationalist young peopled a very successful rally in the locatourch last evening.

David Spragge, on behalf of the locatourch last evening.

embers, extended a hearty welco Mr. Ferris, of Vancouver, replied, and Mr. Jones, also of Vancouver, delivered an address in which he praised the wel an address in which he praised the welcome given to the visitors.

Rev. J. H. Carson spoke of the contribution of the Congregational church to the world, laying stress upon the missionary side of it. Only the Moraviar Brethern had excelled the Congregationalists in this branch of Christian work alists in this branch of Chris He referred also to Dr. Dale's grea

William Dobson, in an address, gave ar attresting talk on Dr. Dale's church it sirmingham, of which he had been s Dr. Reid also gave an interesting address on the work of the church, referring also to Dr. Dale, having been intimately associated with him in their younger days. Rev. Merton Smith, of Vancouver, gave an address full of humor, which was lis-tened to with great interest. Several musical numbers were given evening, and refres were served by the ladies of the church.

WHERE AIR IS WARMEST.

Atmosphere Altitudes Are Coldest Over

Dresden, Sept. 25.-At the meeting toa remarkable statement was made by Prof. Hergezell, of Strassburg Univerraces, which are proving so popular, and which everybody goes to see, and the other

The Baby Show.

In the latter event there are fourteen entries all of which should be winners in the estimation of their parents. The judge for this event was not announced beforehand and a special police guard is ready to rescue him if there is trouble. There is quite a gen-There was a good attendance at the sity, that atmosphere altitudes are cold-

the same nouse with the politry displayed a pigeons are the rabbits and hares. the latter Albert S. Gray has one the finest lots in the country. His hibit of ten fine creatures is being mired by everyone, the sleekness of the classes, much to the same nouse with the parade yes tition only second prizes were awarded in some of the classes, much to the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William that if his bird scores over ninety he should be given the first prize, providing the parade yes tition only second prizes were awarded in some of the classes, much to the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the says in stating the carriage line that has been brought in some of the classes, much to the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the says in stating the carriage line that has been brought in some of the classes, much to the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the carriage line that has been brought in some of the classes, much to the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the carriage line that has been brought in some of the classes, much to the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the carriage line that has been brought in some of the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the carriage line that has been brought in some of the classes, much to the classes on classes and the trouble of the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the carriage line that to do the work in the barn. An prior & Co., is the exhibit of William Mable. One of the finest things in the

SEPTEMBER 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th, 1907

THE GREATEST SHOW IN THE PROVINCE

Trophy Cups and Special Prizes in BIG EXHIBITS BIG PRIZES Every BIG RACES Department BIG PURSES

Valuable THE GREATEST

LIVE STOCK PARADE DAILY

STOCK

MARKET ON

THE COAST

4--DAYS' HORSE RACING--4

Something Doing Every Day, and Every Day a Big Day.

> ENTRIES CLOSE SEPTEMBER 16th. Write for particulars and Prize List.

J. E. SMART, P. O. Drawer 761, VICTORIA, B, C.

Sec.-Treas.