

Our Christmas Bargains

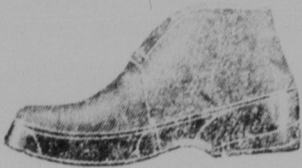

XMAS SALE
December 6th to 24th

At no time in the year do goods offered at greatly reduced prices have a wider appeal than right now when so many things are required for the winter months and so many little remembrances needed for friends. It so happens that this store finds itself overstocked in nearly every line, and rather than carry over a surplus to another year, we are marking every item at a saving worth while to you.

December 6th to 24th

Every item offered was purchased for this season's trade and is the newest and best we could buy. Our only mistake was that we bought too much, and, as the old saying has it, "it's an ill wind that blows nobody good", this ill wind has been blowing for your benefit. Come and reap the harvest.
