VOLUNTEER ORGANIST.

A very large audience welcomed the Volunteer Organist at the Opera House last evening, and all were delighted with the show, which while not by any means a new play is one that is always warmly welcomed to this city. It is good from beginning to end.

The company has apparently not a weak member in it and so far are exceptionally strong. One of the most touching scenes in the play is the church scene, where the Volunteer Organist playing and the two little boys boys singing.

The play is full of numerous funny sketches, the part of the leading comedian being taken by William Hillman, as Alex Uter, who time after time was the recipient of hearty applause.

DEAD LOSS.

The larger portion of New Brunswick's forest wealth goes up in smoke.
The waste from various causes is considerably greater than the value of the manufactured timber, and yet this state of affairs is allowed to continue without any practical interest being shown in attempts to alter existing conditions. This is only one indication of the fact that the highly civilized people of today still exhibit traces of barbarism. It would naturally be expected of those who dwell on this earth a few thousand years ago that they would have no thought for the future, but would seize and extravagantly waste whatever came to their hands. In these enlightened days such a course is hardly warranted, yet the same policy exists, and governments as a rule are so short sighted that they prefer making use of what they have, rather than looking to the future.
Our natural wealth, both on land and sea, far from being preserved, is given over to the desire for immediate gain, and in the years to come the effects of this will be severely felt.

The forests of New Brunswick are being destroyed far more rapidly than they can be renewed under existing conditions. Fires, which might be prevented or checked by a proper organization, are doing enormous damage every summer, the annual loss being much greater than would be required for the maintenance of a corps of forest rangers. This is not the fault of one government more than another, for it is a subject which might properly have been dealt with at any time during the past half century. But it is a matter which ought to receive the serious consideration of the party in power, and it is to be hoped that at the next session of the provincial legislature a modern forestry policy will be developed which will be calculated not only to prevent loss by fire, but to preserve the forests from destruction by wasteful lumbering operations, damage by injurious insects, and from other causes.

MILITARY DRILL IN SCHOOLS.

Sir Frederick Borden will, before the end of the present year, call a conference at Ottawa of all provincial attorneys to secure the assistance of the latter in a scheme for instituting a system of military training in public schools. The minister of militia seems to be of the opinion that this project will find favor in the eyes of those who have to do with education.
He proposes that all students in attendance at normal schools shall receive from qualified instructors some knowledge of rudimentary military duties. This they will in turn impart to their pupils, the result being that only an elementary training in drill, but a systematic physical development and a more thorough discipline than is reached in the ordinary branches of study.

So long as nothing more than this is attempted Sir Frederick will meet with but a little opposition. It is recognized on all sides that in the ordinary school the physical development of scholars is almost wholly neglected, and that a systematic course of training could not be otherwise than beneficial. But if the minister should attempt to introduce anything of a more warlike nature, such as school rifle clubs, he would raise a storm of opposition. The majority of Canadians are probably not opposed to military training, but there are many citizens who have pronounced opinions on this subject and who would no doubt give vent to their ideas in no uncertain manner.

THE EXCITEMENT IS OVER.

The exposure of conditions in the houses of packing houses created in the world of commerce an upheaval which threatened to have most serious and lasting results. There were evidences of great loss of business and for a time strong feeling existed against the packers. But in this busy world even such an event cannot be held long in memory. The great public is after all, as easily pacified as a little child, and when the first burst of anger is subsided, the wonted calm soon returns.
Thus, although there were vehement denunciations of President Roosevelt, the prime mover in the investigation, heated declarations that he had brought about irreparable injury to the commerce of the United States, the result has not been as bad as might have been expected from the prophecies of the packers. For a time contracts for meat were cancelled on all sides, sales fell off, and there was much excitement. But gradually a certain improvement in trade was noticeable and now in less than six months after the Reynolds' report was submitted, the announcement is made that the output of preserved meats from Chicago and the other western packing towns, is greater than ever. Confidence has been restored, not through any revolution in the methods of preparing meats, though of course there is a certain improvement there, but rather through lapse of time, and forgetfulness. The packers have lost a little business, but after all they have learned their lesson cheaply.

SUMMER RAIN.

Dancin' on the hilltop, Patterin' on the plain,
What a breezy blessing
In the fall of summer rain.

How the cornbrides rustle!
All the famished crops Listen for its coming—Drink the beady drops.

And the rose in the garden—
They all take heart again, And the wild flowers all seem thankful
With a silver rim o' rain!
—Atlanta Constitution.

CONSIDERATE.

Mrs. Ascum—What sort of a girl is your new servant?
Mrs. Hiram Offen—Well, she's exceedingly good-natured and tender-hearted.
Mrs. Ascum—Indeed!
Mrs. Hiram Offen—Yes; while I was doing her work today she told me not to work so hard.

SYSTEMATIC CHARITY.

Clerk at poor relief office to applicant—Are you applying for relief?
Applicant (in rags and looking famished)—Yes.
"Where do you live?"
Applicant gives an address.
"Well, we will inquire into your case and the result will be made known to you as soon as possible. By the way, are you on the telephone?"

GETTING PROFICIENT.

There is a member of Congress from the southwest who had a trying experience in learning to run the big motor car he purchased last winter.
One day a friend said: "How are you getting along with the thing?"
"O, I'm making progress," was the modest reply of the southwester.
"Ding pretty well, eh?"
"Yes," resumed the Congressman gravely, "I can suit now without stopping, and soon I expect to be able to raise my hat."

HIGHER TEMPERATURE?

This is from Sir Archibald Geikie's remembrances: A country doctor, who was attending a laird, had instructed the butler of the house in the art of taking and recording his master's temperature with a thermometer. On returning to the house one morning he was met by the butler, to whom he said, "Well, John, I hope the laird's temperature is not any higher today." The man looked puzzled for a moment and then replied:
"Well, I was just wonderin' that myself. I see he died at twa' o'clock."

EXPLANATIONS WANTED.

Young husband (to wife)—Didn't I telegraph you not to bring your mother with you? Young wife—I know.
That's what she wants to see you about. She read the telegram.

VIRTUE LEANED TO FAILING'S SIDE.

Kind Lady—I hope, my good sir, that you are a Christian.
The Hobo—I reckon mabby I am, 'cos I never was guilty of nothin' on Sunday.

OBVIOUS.

(From the Cleveland Leader.)
"You're laughing at me!"
"I'm not."
"You are."
"What makes you think so?"
"I don't see anything else to laugh at."

DIDN'T HAVE TO.

Dottle—Dick's an impudent thing, isn't he?
Lottie—Oh, I don't know.
Dottle—What he try to kiss you?
Lottie—Not very hard.

DISGRACE ON HER HEAD.

"George, before we were married you promised me disgrace should never rest on my head."
"Well?"
"What do you call this last year's hat I'm wearing?"

SMILE.

Do you forget
You ought to be yet
To smile.
Then, whilst
The world grows brighter
Your heart is lighter,
And always while
You smile.

OR GO TO PRAYER MEETING.

In New York.
"Can't you think of some unusual thing to do tonight—something we haven't done before?"
"We might spend the evening at home."

POACHERS FIRED

ON FISHERY OFFICER.

Officers Returned the Fire and One of the Law Breakers is Said to Have Been Hit.

(Moncton Times.)

A report was in circulation a few days ago, to the effect that Constable A. W. Delyea, and fishery officer Hobart had a conflict with fishermen near Shediac. The report was doubted but it was well founded. A few days ago Fishery Officer Hebert, of Shediac, accompanied by Provincial Constable Delyea, took boat, and gave chase to violators of the law, who were fishing oysters on the government preserve. One of the men whose name is said to be William Robinson, fired two shots at the officers, and Constable Delyea returned a shot, which is said to have taken effect in Robinson's leg.
A chase was given, but the fugitives could not be captured. A warrant was issued charging Robinson with firing on Fishery Officer Hebert, and placed in Constable Delyea's hands. Robinson is supposed to have gone to Cape Bauld and taken an out-going schooner.

FIRES IN MAINE.

Forest Conflagrations Increasing in Size and Number Fires Along the B. & A. Near Millinocket, at Norcross, at Juk Mary, and Other Places.

(Bangor Commercial.)

Reports continue to come in of the steady increase in size and number of forest fires in Maine. Crews of men are being sent out in every direction by lumberland owners, some to fight the fires and others to maintain a constant vigil over the land owned by the men who send them out to check any fire which may start before it has gathered headway enough to be dangerous. The fires are confined to no one section of the state. They are scattered widely over the northern, eastern, and central portions. As yet no one fire is reported as having done much damage but several are large enough to be considered very dangerous.

Last week several fires were reported. One was in East Millinocket. A fire in the Pleasant river, near what is known as the farm town around the head of Chesuncook lake. John Appleton of Bangor had a crew of men patrolling all along the river from Chesuncook to Northeast Carry but somehow this fire got a start before it was discovered. Root Sutherland and a crew of men who were in that vicinity went to fight the fire as soon as they received word of it. How this fire is now is not known since no word has been received from there since last week.

Monday a fire was reported on townships 3 and 4, the latter Lakeville plantation, on land owned by John Cassidy of Bangor and Mr. Eaton of St. Stephen, N. B. News of the fire was sent to Bangor by Charles Whittier of Passadumkeag. He has gone to the scene of the fire and a crew from Bagor's operation in that vicinity has gone to fight the fire. The fire is about 20 miles from Passadumkeag.

A despatch from Millinocket Monday states that fires have broken out all along the line of the Bangor & Arrows-head railroad and have already caused much damage. The largest of these fires has been raging about three miles north of Millinocket and thus far the efforts of 100 men have been unavailing to stop the progress of the fire.
A stream separates the burning section from Millinocket village so no fears are entertained for the safety of the town.

Sunday night a gang of fire fighters was called out to fight a fire near the saw mill in East Millinocket. A fire is reported near Norcross and another is said to be burning around Jo Mary lake. A fire is also reported burning the woods along the extension of the Somerset railroad north of Bingham.

A young man named James Burke, 18 years old, of New York, died of consumption on the steamer Calvin Austin on the way to Boston Sunday.
He had been on a vacation trip to Nova Scotia and was on his way home with his mother when his illness proved fatal.

The New Brunswick Press Association's semi-annual meeting will be held in St. John at two o'clock on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 6th, the hall in which the meeting will be held will be decided later. A meeting of the executive will be held in St. John on the evening of Wednesday, Sept. 6th. Several papers will be prepared by members for discussion.

ICE CREAM!

To those who have not used our Ice Cream, we wish to say a word.
Our Ice Cream costs more to make than any other; we use double the usual quantity of pure rich cream, which in itself is a costly item; we do not use "fillers" such as condensed milk, corn starch or patented powders to produce larger quantities for less money.
The Fruits we use are Pure Fruits, and the Vanilla is furnished by a maker of the highest reputation.
We make our Ice Cream regardless of expense and charge no more than you pay for ordinary cream made and handled in the ordinary way.

ANOTHER LOT OF CRIMINAL

ASSAULTS BY NEGROES

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 20—"Bob" Etheridge, the negro who on Thursday last attempted to criminally assault a 12 year old daughter of T. H.
West, a farmer, was shot to death by a mob nine miles from Summerville, South Carolina, about nine o'clock tonight.

It was the intention of the father of the child to take Etheridge to the scene of his crime and there shoot him to death, but he was overtaken by the mob. Etheridge was placed upon a dry goods box and asked if he had anything to say. He refused to talk further than to say he was guilty. The mob then proceeded to riddle his body with bullets. The mob numbered 200 men.

Etheridge was employed at the home of West. Thursday afternoon he asked the child to accompany him to feed the stock and while at the barn he attacked her. The child was horribly bruised and bleeding. Her husband was in the house and saw the attack. He immediately ran to the aid of his wife and tried to rescue her. He was struck by a mob of about 200 men and was killed.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 20—"The 16 year old daughter of George Wadwell, a farmer near Fremont, was murdered Sunday afternoon and her body found in a mud pit where it was found the same day.
An examination made it clear that the girl was strangled. The ground showed that a struggle had taken
