"CARUSO MONKEYS"

QUITE A FAD

Washington Society Girls Have Discarded the "Teddy Bears" for the Monkey.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 21.—The fad of carrying "Teddy bears," which started here and spread to all parts of the country, is certain to lose its fascination for the young women in the fashionable sets in the various cities of the country, for the "Caruso monkey," which has been brought in to great prominence through the quick wit of a local dealer and the trial of the famous grand opera tenor which recently occurred in New York. The fact that Caruso became involved in his trouble in front of the monkey house gave a local dealer an idea. He took down his stock of bears, which had lined the front of his windows and shelves, and placed in front and in conspicuous places all the monkeys he had in stock. He labeled them "Caruso monkeys."

A pretty young woman from Washington who is spending a part of the winter here was rather struck with the novelty of the thing, and she bought one and went out on Broadway with it in her arms, sign and all. Some of the fair promenaders became curious and wanted to know where she had purchased it. In a few days nearly all the women were carrying them, and now one cannot go into a cafe that you will not see the women in nine parties out of ten carrying the "monkeys."

"Caruso has my sincere thanks for getting into the scrape," remarked the dealer, "for if he hadn't I'd had those monkeys on my hands yet."

SEATTLE, Dec. 21.—Wrangel, on the southeastern coast of Alaska, today was placed in telegraphic communication with the outside world for the first time. Shore connections have been made by the United States cable ship Burnside and the office is now open for business.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 21.—Captain Macklin, U. S. A., was shot and dangerously wounded by a negro at Port Reno.

The sleigh drive which was to have been held yesterday by the employees of the St. John Iron Works, Ltd., has been postponed indefinitely until the weather becomes more suitable.

Brownell from their crib Christmas morning to see how Santa Claus has dealt with them, and one will find coiled in his or her stocking a baby boa constrictor. Mr. Brownell is a dealer in all kinds of snakes. All four of the children—Donald, aged two; Wendolyn, four; David, five; and Kathryn, nine—seem to have inherited from their father a liking for reptiles.

"The baby boys," said Brownell, "will be perfectly harmless in the early stage of their infancy, and in a few weeks will make good playthings for the kids. They behave as well as I do, and even baby Donald is no more afraid of one than he is of a cat. When the snakes begin to put on inches and manifest a desire to tie knots around the table legs, I will bounce them into my snake room and keep them there."

MRS. PLATT'S CHUM

GETS MARRIED

Carrie Meyers Weds Man She Met When Chumming With Senator's Young Wife.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Carrie Meyers, former star of the old Black Crook Company, who has lately figured as the Nemesis of Mrs. T. C. Platt, her chum Charles Bell, an electrician. This is the latest chapter in the sensational romances growing out of the domestic difficulties of Senator Platt and his young wife.

Charles Bell was one of the gay throng that shared in the mirth and madness of the Black Crook chorus girls. For many years after these merry times Charles Bell lost all trace of the gay coterie. The discovery of Carrie Meyers as an important witness in the Platt scandal brought back to Bell memories of the old time. He found her, renewed the old-time friendship, and the marriage resulted.

One of the younger members of the throng who joined in the Black Crook revels was Charles Bell, then only a boy.
