[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

LETTER III.

Mr. Editor.—I have just seen the Courier with another copy of your article, and am glad to find that you have not been misled by the Editor's statement...

It has been always said by his opponents that he was hostile to the Bill and was the sole cause of its failure; but this I shall show, like many other assertions of the same party in false and unfounded...

It will be remembered that previous to the meeting of the Legislature Sir A. Campbell received from Lord Glenelg a Despatch detailing the terms of the surrender of the Canal Revenues...

It is a well known fact that the great bulk of the people in this country are ignorant of their rights and of the principles of the Constitution...

in 1839 and '38 and all the other articles which have appeared in the Courier containing libels upon Sir Archibald Campbell, and all the letters of G. R. already published or to be published, shall be burnt by the hands, not of the common hangman, but of the Sergeant-at-arms, in presence of the whole House on the first day of the session...
