

W. A. Riddell Principal and Dean of Arts and Science

On behalf of the faculty I wish to thank the student activities around active year. The initiative shown in aetting student activities or and active year. On behalf of the faculty I wish to thank the students for a successful and active year. The initiative shown in getting student activities organized within the first few days of the term has produced excellent divided within the first few days of the term has produced excellent. and active year. The initiative shown in getting student activities organized within the first few days of the term has produced excellent interest idends of student participation in many activities and increased interesting idends of student participation in many activities. ized within the first few days of the term has produced excellent dividends of student participation in many activities and increased in NFCIIS idends of student participation. The admission of the student hody to NFCIIS in the work on the campus. idends of student participation in many activities and increased interest NFCUS in the work on the campus. The admission of this campus from a further sten in the transition of this campus. in the work on the campus. The admission of the student body to NFCUS from a in the transition of this campus from a in the transition which the students have (now CUS) marks a further step in the way in which the students have linear College to a University and the way in which the students have (now CUS) marks a further step in the transition of this campus from a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university, and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the students have a university and the way in which the way in wh Junior College to a University, and the way in which the students have addressed themselves to consideration of important aspects of life and addressed themselves to consideration of a mature attitude in dealing with the facilities here gives evidence of a mature attitude in dealing. addressed themselves to consideration of important aspects of life and themselves to consideration of important aspects of life and with the facilities here gives evidence of a mature attitude in dealing with the problems facing them Our best wishes go with you as you proceed with further studies, industry on best wishes go with you as you proceed with further studies, industry on best wishes go with you as you proceed with further studies, industry on the professional schools or embark on a career in husiness industry on the professional schools or embark on a career in husiness. Our best wishes go with you as you proceed with further studies, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, when a professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry enter professional schools or embark on a career in business. enter professional schools or embark on a career in business, industry or the publicservice. We expect that your experience here will cause you to make a greater contribution in vour field of responsibility. or the publicservice. We expect that your experience here will or the publicservice. We expect that your field of responsibility. problems facing them. W. A. Riddell Principal

I would like to congratulate the students of Regina Campus for having nade the 1963-64 university year the success it was.

The Students' Representative Council has initiated this campuse. Some carto increase the atmosphere of university life on this campuse. The Students' Representative Council has initiated many changes this year to increase the atmosphere of university life on this campus. Some year to increase the atmosphere of university life on the establishment of our most noteworthy activities were. Froshweek-end the establishment of our most noteworthy activities were. made the 1963-64 university year the success it was. year to increase the atmosphere of university life on this campus. Some of our most noteworthy activities were: Froshweek-end, the appointment of our most noteworthy activities were: Froshweek the appointment of the Western Canadian Entertainment circuit the appointment cir of our most noteworthy activities were: Froshweek-end, the establishment of a of the Western Canadian Entertainment circuit, the appointment of the Western Canadian Committee a bi-monthly television program new Students' Union Ruilding Committee a bi-monthly television program. of the Western Canadian Entertainment circuit, the appointment of a Students' Union Building committee, a bi-monthly television of Students and Indian of Studen Students' Union Building committee, a bi-monthly television program, new and membership of this university into the Canadian Union of Students and membership of this university press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the Canadian University Press and Many hadly needed changes in the membership of this university into the Canadian Union of Students and the Canadian Union of Students and many badly needed changes in the concanadian University Press, and many badly needed changes in the Canadian University Press, and many badly needed changes in the Canadian University Press, and many badly needed changes in the Canadian University Press, and many badly needed changes in the Canadian Union of Students and the Cana Canadian University Press, and many badly needed changes in the constitution. It was with much appreciation that the Students daing their part to insure stitution. It was with much appreciation students daing their part to insure council saw interested and serious students. stitution. It was with much appreciation that the Students' Representative

Stitution. It was with much appreciation that the Students doing their part to insure Council saw interested and serious students doing their part to insure the success of student activities. he success of student activities.

I would like to thank the members of the faculty, administration, and I can honestly administration. I would like to thank the members of the faculty, administration, and I can honestly fellow student councillors for their fine work this year, and I can have worked with you. This year has say that it has been a pleasure to have worked with you. fellow student councillors for their fine work this year, and I can honestly that it has been a pleasure to have worked with you. This year has say that it has been a pleasure of many new valuable experiences here a milestone in my life herause of many new valuable. say that it has been a pleasure to have worked with you. This year has been a milestone in my life because of many new, valuable experiences been a milestone in my life because and professors that I shall never and many new friendships with students and professors that I shall never the success of student activities. been a milestone in my life because of many new, valuable experiences and many new friendships with students and professors that I shall never forget orget.

I wish success to you all in your particular areas of study and life you will look back upon this year and I hope that in the future you will look back upon the future you will look back upon this year I wish success to you all in your particular areas of study and life work, and I hope that in the future, you will look back upon this year.

Work, and I hope that in the future, you will look back upon this year.

Work, and I hope that in the future, you will look back upon this year. work, and I hope that in the future, you will look back upon this year with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, with many fond memories of 1963-64 at the University of Saskatchewan, which was the saskatchewan at the University of Saskatchewan, which was the Universit Robert Gaudry President, SRC Regina Campus.

