NOVEMBER SESSION COURT OF APPEAL

Power Co. Case Stands Till Later in Year—Other Cases Argued at Fredericton Yesterday.

Fredericton, Nov. 11—The Supreme Court of Appeal met here today.
The docket is not a large one, comprising eight cases, but some of these are of outstanding importance. That of the New Brunswick Power Company, which has been the occasion for such large and contentious conferences before the provincial legislature, is entered first, but by consent of the court and agreement between Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, for St. John city, and Mr. F. R. Taylor, K. C. for the Power Company. The hearing stands till later in term on a day to be fixed and announced this week.
The next, a reserved crown case of the King vs. Bareham, in which Hon. Attorney General Byrne appears for the prosecution and Mr. Mullin, K. C., for the defence, owing to the printed evidence not being completed, will go over till next term.
The third, which is also a county court appeal from St. John, that of D'Arcy vs Land, and in which Mr. J. King Kelley, K. C., supports the appeal of the defendant. The case was finished this afternoon. Court considers, J. Starr Tait contra.
The case of Wilson vs. Wilson brings up a Farm Settlement Board appeal regarding plaintiff's right to oust defendant, the title to the land being still in the Farm Settlement Board. G. H. V. Belyea for plaintiff appealant, Dr. W. B. Wallace for respondent.
There were a few common motions today: W. M. Ryan, in the King vs. R. J. Ritchie, ex parte E. J. Broderick, M. D., applied for a certiorari to quash the conviction made against Dr. Broderick under the prohibition act. One of the grounds taken was that the magistrate had no jurisdiction in the case and the second ground was that the fine was excessive. The court did not entertain the first point, but granted the rule for argument upon the second.
Time extensions were granted to enter appeals and file factums upon motion of Dr. Mullin, K. C., in the case of Bertha Lupee vs. Agnes O. Hogan, and of B. B. Hanson, K. C. in the case of Joseph E. Connelly and Daniel G. Connelly vs. Frank R. Boone.
Myles vs. Myles was being argued when court adjourned this evening.
Four new attorneys of the court were created today upon motion of Attorney General Byrne, three of whom are from St. John and graduates in Law from Kings College, Windsor. Those sworn in are: Charles J. Mellday, B. A., St. Joseph's College, B. C. L., articled with Dr. H. A. Powell; Harold Vincent, B. C. L., articled with Horace A. Porter; Ralph Stevenson, B. C. L., with Kenneth A. Wilson; Maxwell Singer, of Sussex, B. C. L., McGill College.

BOATS FOR NORTH SEA HEROES

Admiralty Scheme to Help Fishermen Who Served Afloat of Mine Sweepers.

The Admiralty has prepared a scheme to assist fishermen who served afloat in minesweepers and patrols during the war to re-establish themselves in the fishing business as their own masters.
Details were made public yesterday in the House of Commons by Dr. Masnamara in answer to a question.
Certain surplus Admiralty drifters up to the number of 160 will be turned over, adapted for fishing, to the Fishery Boards for disposal to individual ex-service fishermen, to be paid for out of the earnings of the new owners by instalments.
A more extensive co-partnership scheme has also received Admiralty support. About 200 trawlers adapted by the Admiralty for fishing will be handed over to a co-partnership company which it is proposed to form among fishermen who served in the war. The company will not be required to purchase outright.
The Government will take the debenture security of the company, and the company will pay off the debentures by annual fixed amounts, with interest at 5 per cent. The Government will not interfere with the management of the company in any way.

Belongs to the O. H. P. E. C. The Remington Typewriter is in a class by itself. It belongs to the One Hundred Per Cent. Efficiency Class.
A. Milne Fraser, Jas. A. Little, Mgr., 37 Dock St., St. John, N. B.
