Question—Daily Problems for Standard
Readers.

Answers to Thursday's Questions.

1. In forming a cabinet the Premier selects such men of his party as have shown capacity for administration. The names are then submitted to the Governor-General, or the Lieutenant-General as the case may be, for approval.
2. When a member of Parliament is asked to enter a cabinet he is made a member of the Privy Council for Canada, and is entitled to be called "Honorable," and he must return to his constituency for re-election as a cabinet minister.
3. Sometimes a premier may wish to include in his cabinet a man who is not a member of parliament; it is then usual for some member to resign his seat in favor of the newly chosen minister, who then becomes a candidate for election in the constituency.
4. A quorum is the least number of members of a society who are permitted to transact business, the number is usually fixed in the constitution, otherwise a majority of the members is required. To prevent a "rule" the quorum should be composed of an uneven number of members.
5. Some of the exemptions from municipal taxation are: 1. Property reserved for Indians or owned by the Crown. 2. Churches and cemeteries. 3. Public educational institutions—such as universities, colleges and schools. 4. Seminaries for religious, philanthropic, or educational purposes. 5. Municipal halls, courthouses, roads, sewers, hospitals, 6. Public roads and squares.
6. The Hon. R. W. Vignereux of St. John, N. B., has been called to the new Cabinet at Ottawa as Minister of Customs and Inland Revenue.

Questions.

1. What makes for a successful Secretary of any Society?
2. Can you name six more exemptions from Municipal taxation?
3. How many wards are there in the City of St. John? Can you name them? What is the name of the ward where you live?
4. What is meant by the expression "The Bill is up for its first reading?"
5. What do you mean by census?
6. By the Representation Act of 1914 it is provided that the House of Commons is to consist of 234 members distributed by provinces, do you know how this distribution is made, and do you know the number of members that New Brunswick has?
7. Who is the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, and where does he live?
8. Study Problem: Is it practicable for the municipality to erect dwelling houses to be rented to the poor classes?

BLESSINGS.

Like the pretty autumn leaves
Gently falling on the way.
So, blessings, rich and manifold,
Strew my path today.
Health and strength and bounteous cheer,
Friends and home and loved ones dear,
While countless blessings throng the year,
Each day have whispered—"God is near."
Blessings, blessings everywhere,
Proclaim His tender love and care.
And am I thankful?
I would very thankful be,
But lest I should "forget,"
I pray, help me to remember Thee.
And help me to remember
That all my blessings come from Thee,
Ever, only, always.

Women's Hospital
Aid Meeting

Reports Received—Mrs. F. E. Williams, Denominational Vice-President.

It was announced at the regular meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid held yesterday that Mrs. F. E. Williams had consented to act as denominational vice president for the Methodist. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who presided, stated that Mrs. Williams was the choice of the Methodist ladies and her appointment was greeted with applause.

Amid applause, Mrs. T. Carleton Lee accepted the office of first vice president, until the annual meeting.

Financial Statement

In the absence of Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, Mrs. E. A. Young acted as secretary. Mrs. R. Duncan treasurer gave the financial statement as follows: A balance on hand of $5,589.02, with $3.49 in the Flower Fund. Five Mrs. for the past four months have been donated.

A letter was read from Mrs. Charles Stanford, telling of accounts received from her sister, Mrs. Nicholson, of Middlesex, Conn., describing Hospital Day in that city, and the raising of nearly $200.00 for a special appeal. On motion a vote of thanks will be written to Mrs. Nicholson, thanking her for her interest and helpful suggestions. Miss Addy told of Hospital Day at Newport.

Hospital Board Vacancy

Mrs. Travers sent a written account of the committee, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. W. W. White and herself, who interviewed the Municipal Council regarding a reported vacancy on the Board of Hospital Commissioners. On being told there was no vacancy, Mrs. Smith reported further on their courteous reception saying that no one must be discouraged. Not one woman but two was needed on the Board and she had no fear but that the Aid would get them. She did like the system of waiting for nature to relieve a man of an office but thought that Premier Foster had made it possible for two additional women to be appointed.

No reports were given by denominational vice presidents except Mrs. Andrew McDonald, who, acting for Mrs. Doody, told of two annual members from the Cathedral and Mrs. Sime who reported one life member, Mrs. F. T. Dunlop. A final report was received from Mrs. J. Y. McMillan who stated that Centenary has two new annual members, Portland Street Methodist Church four. Out of 525 tickets Mrs. McMillan has sold 319.

Visiting Committee

For the visiting committee, Mrs. A. C. Sutherland told of visiting on the Tuesdays and of a special effort made to make the day after Thanksgiving a festival for the patients. Grapes for all patients contributed by the executive and Percy Thomson, were much appreciated. A Russian sailor, who had been at the Hospital for five weeks, was sent newspapers through the kindness of the War Brindle of the Seamen's Institute who will also visit the map. A Scotch sailor was looked after. Of two homeless babies at the hospital one is supposed to belong to the Methodists, the other to the Roman Catholics. These cases are being followed. Thanks for flowers were given Mrs. J. Fraser Gregory, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Myles, Fairville, and Mrs. St. George's. St. Jude's and the Church of the Good Shepherd. Miss Alice Estey was thanked for a fine gift of children's books. Mrs. Henry Wallace had been an excellent member of the committee. It was felt that Mrs. Wallace should be asked to visit and not repeat the list.

Mrs. A. J. Mulcahy and Mrs. Young reported for the magazine committee.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

OLD DOBBIN

I am thinking about you today, Old Dobbin. It was long ago, wasn't it? I loved you and I rather think that you loved me, too. You listened so attentively to my oratory talk! And you seemed to like to have me around—to hop on your back and go to the trough down town for your water, and to come each morning and night to give you your hay and feed.

How beautiful your coat of glossy brown—how luxuriant your mane and tail!

What times we used to have with the old two-wheeled cart, and how we loved to "race into town" together—because you always knew I had a surprise for you at the end.

I miss you, Old Dobbin.

Do you remember when we ran over the ditch and broke the spring and how sorry you were—because you knew that I would be sorrier—later? Old Dobbin, I've wanted you back a lot of times since.

You never minded the rain—or anything, Old Dobbin. You were always ready "for a fight or a frolic." You never complained. In memory of you, Old Dobbin, I've painted a thousand Dobbins since, and fed them apples and things—and tried so hard to be kind—to people.

I hear your merry whinnow all now, Old Dobbin. The gentle pat of your trot into town is sweet music to my heart even when I'm tired. And tonight, Old Dobbin, when I lie down to rest, I think I shall say a little prayer to the god of Dobbins—who must be somewhere—and ask him if he won't get you in for just a little "tune-up" while I become a boy again, in my dreams, and play once more with you!

WAS HOSTESS TO FIFTY CANVASSERS

Those Connected With Y. W. C. A. Special Appeal Were Entertained.

Mrs. James F. Robertson was hostess yesterday afternoon at the tea hour to fifty canvassers for the Y. W. C. A. special appeal. The gathering was a delightful informal one, bright and inspiring talks being given by Mrs. Robertson, Miss Tapscott and Miss Ethel Millican. The workers were all enthusiastic over the success of the campaign and received their lists and literature prepared for start today on their rounds.

An annual subscription has been promised by one member to the Travellers' Aid in memory of her arrival in Paris when friends failed to meet her. A "Y" worker cared for her until her friends were located and in gratitude for this gift will be made to the Y. W. C. A. Travellers' Aid every year.

Miss Mrs. W. W. White said that tenders had been received from Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd., Am-land Brothers, J. Marcus and A. O. Skinner for rugs. The feeling was very strong that furnishings should be bought in St. John whenever possible. Mrs. White said she felt encouraged regarding the number of rooms which will be furnished by the following list of those who offered: De Monts Chapter I. O. O. F. M. and Mrs. Milton Mackay, Mrs. Vassil, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lakely, Robert Moran, New York and Mrs. Percy Thomson.

A message was received from Mrs. J. H. Doody, Roman Catholic denomi- national vice president, stating that her church members will furnish the large library at the Nurses' Home. This fine offer was enthusiastically accepted. There now remain to be furnished the superintendent's two rooms, the matron's two rooms, a lecture room, class room and a small room on the first floor as well as a number of bedrooms.

Mrs. White asked that thanks be sent to these and also to P. B. Ellis and other members of the Press who had published news of the Aid. Mrs. White referred to the fact that Miss Letalich has resigned and four other nurses, and urged the advisability of improving matters in connection with the Hospital and Nurses' Home.

A tag was adopted for Tag Day and the meeting resolved itself into a committee to appoint special conveners and make arrangements for that undertaking.

Shaw was elected to that body. Mrs. Tilley announced that the Club will have an interesting speaker in November and for December. WOMEN VOTED "WET"
IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver, Oct. 21.—The great surprise in the prohibition ranks in the voting in the province was that the women did not generally support the "dry" law. With more women voters than in any other province, the result showed that women were as much divided as the men voters. From sixty to sixty-five per cent. of the fair sex must have gone with the moderation side.

SEASONABLE RECIPES.

Relishes and Salads.

A delicious cabbage relish is made by putting into the preserving kettle one pint each of lima beans and string beans, one cupful of diced celery, one cupful of green pepper, half a cupful of minced onion and two cupfuls of finely shredded cabbage; pour over all a quart of vinegar mixed with half a cupful of four, one cupful of sugar, a quarter of a cupful of salt, and one-third of a cupful of paprika and simmer away the beans are tender. Seal as for canned fruit. If the beans are not very young, parboil in salted water for half an hour before adding to the other ingredients.

For the sautéed sprouts use freshly cooked or leftover sprouts. Drain thoroughly and sauté in a little hot pork or bacon fat. Dust with salt and paprika before serving.

The Delmonico cabbage salad is made from a pint of shredded cabbage, half a cupful of chopped nut meats, one cupful of diced canned pineapple and a diced banana. Dress with a whipped cream salad dressing made with a boiled foundation of pineapple juice, egg and sugar and heap into lettuce cups.

In getting better acquainted with the cabbage family it is well to remember that the coarser outer leaves will answer for soup or the cabbage rolls and the inner white part of the crisp salads and when eaten raw.

Cheese and Cabbage Canapes. Shred the cabbage finely and crisp in the searbox. Mix with each large cupful of the cabbage one teaspoonful of minced pimientos, two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, one tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce, half a teaspoonful each of lemon juice and French mustard and two tablespoonfuls of vegetable oil. Spread on crisp toast slices that have been spread on one side with anchovy butter. Cut in triangles.

Many a man who has a small spark of genius imagines he has a whole confederacy.

Sunday School
Conference Opened

Delegates Enjoyed Supper at Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria—Able Addresses.

The importance of the Sunday School to every citizen is being emphasized at meetings of the St. John's Sunday School conference, which opened yesterday.

A supper was held last evening, at the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria, which was attended by a number of ministers and Sunday School officers. Charles R. Wasson, president, was in the chair.

The next speaker was Rev. W. H. Magee, entitled "What Constitutes a Good Sunday School." A discussion followed, which was joined in by J. E. Arthur, J. Irvine and L. A. DeYea.

The following were introduced to the conference: Rev. W. C. Machum, P. J. Millican, Presbyterian Sunday School Secretary; Rev. W. A. Ross, General Secretary of the Maritime Sunday School Association; A. M. O'Gea, Y. M. C. A. Secretary; Miss Mary Allison, Y. W. C. A. Girls' Work Secretary; and Miss Jackson.

L. W. Simms submitted a proposition for a verse visitation of the entire county to be undertaken under the direction of Mr. Durham, of the International Sunday School Association.

Prayer was offered by J. E. Rogers, and the meeting adjourned to Central Baptist Church.

Evening Session.

After prayer and Scripture reading by Rev. F. H. Bone, an address was given at the evening session by Rev. W. H. Magee, entitled "The Importance of the Sunday School to the Church." The speaker pointed out that the Bible is filled with stories of children, and that the Sunday School is "Jesus set a child in their midst." The slowness of the Church to realize the necessity of heartily supporting the Sunday School was referred to and several helpful suggestions given.

For Business Men.

"The Appeal of the Sunday School to the Business Man" was the subject treated of by W. C. Cross. He believed, he said, that the Sunday School should be supported because it has something to give, and also the business man can give support and co-operation. To the business man the Sunday School offers a constructive work, an insight into the Bible, an opportunity to exercise executive ability, training, and the privilege of teaching to teachers it was said, "Ye are great in the Kingdom of God." Mr. Cross stated that this year at Acadia College salaries of professors had been raised 25 per cent. above last year. He praised teachers, and spoke of their influence for good. He was sure that the Sunday School could do much for a business man who would enter as a scholar.

Rev. F. H. Millican.

It was announced that Hon. Dr. Roberts was unable to be present, and his place was taken by Rev. F. H. Millican, Presbyterian Field Secretary. He pointed out the small time given for religious instruction to Protestant children in comparison to that spent by Jewish and Roman Catholic scholars. The Protestant religion stands for freedom and the liberty of the individual, and it is the duty of that religion to uphold the world's democracy. Mr. Millican showed that many Sunday School scholars are lost to the Church each year. He said people failed to realize the religious capacity of a child and lack of definiteness in teaching.

Rev. A. S. Bishop announced the Teachers' Training Classes, which will be held each week in November at the Church of England Institute, and in which all the Protestant churches are co-operating.

Mr. Wasson announced this afternoon's meeting at Central Baptist at tonight's at German Street, Baptist.

Rev. W. A. Ross pronounced the Benediction.

When Mother
Went Out To Vote

Afterwards She Hurried Home to Go on With Her Usual Occupation.

Mother was out early to vote. She left her wash-tub, and putting her hat on straight went to the duty of suffrage. Then she went home and fixed up the children and started them off to school. They waited for her with faces against the pane.

In the voting booth, she showed as much sense as men and voted, we doubt not, with as much intelligence. If we stop to think that trousers, cleans, whiskers, do not vote, but that minds, hopes, ideas and impulses do the voting we see it differently. Not petticoats but purposes take the ballot into the booth. Humanity is not 10 per cent. male—it is fifty-fifty. Voting is no right; it is a duty. When ever suffrage is restricted, it must be restricted not along sex lines, but along some other lines, if any. Intelligence, capacity, responsibility—these are the touchstones of the ballot, not sex.

Mother was excited! She held her breath when the mystic word "check" sounded. She wanted to show her ballot, marked to her husband to see if it were gone correctly. O! The "secret ballot!"

The Booths.

The booths smelt of sachet-powder instead of moose. Men hung around a little longer and watched the eager women perform in the first of the immortal rights, in Maine. Historic day and moment! Long desired!

Then mother put away her new "rights" and thought of her old duties. Children, calling; washing to be done; cooking to be done; bills to pay; food to order; mending to be done; home repairs.

Unsexed! Of course she was unsexed. Hadn't she to the polls use her friends; marked a ballot; gotten acquainted with "political sprints" and seen the political "flaming sword" and otherwise damaged her life irreparably. But mother does not know it. Not a bit of it. Mother somehow feels that she has a new responsibility that she is equal to assuming. She feels that she has a mind that is capable of working. She feels that her opinion

Is as good as that of some men. She is probably ruined, but somehow we have not noticed any special difference in "mother" since she registered and voted. She seems to be about the same. Unsexed mother—still doing the washing, still bearing the children, still mending, sweeping, working and hoping.

A Patient Man.

"I wish I had one of those fellows here who are trying all the time to get into communication with Mrs. 'Why?' " "I could use him right now. He'd be just the man to try to get the four telephone numbers I've got to call."

CABBAGES USEFUL

Other Members of Vegetable Family Which Help Out Meal.

With the coming of the cool days even the vegetables take on heartier character, and as most of the members of the cabbage family are sufficiently substantial to make a meal in themselves (with a sauce and a garnish of crisp bacon) they will be found very useful in making the home budget under the winter help out a meal of rather meagre proportions.

When boiling cabbage cut in quarters and remove the stem portion. Have the boiling salted water. Put and drop in each piece, seeing the water boils again before adding other portions. Cook uncovered, turning the pieces down under the water until all are softened through. Cook until the cabbage is tender, thoroughly, chop and turn into the part of the double boiler, the potatoes, the cabbage, and the paprika to taste, a generous cup of butter and about half a cup of cream or top of the butter. Set in the home budget under the winter help out a meal of rather meagre proportions.

If a meat flavor is liked, two three-bouillon cubes may be added half an hour to the water in which the cabbage is cooked and the soup saved as the basis for a good soup. Both cabbage and cauliflower are good additions to any soup to a few cents.

Brussels sprouts, which look much like individual tiny cabbages should be carefully looked over.

SCIENCE PROVES THE DANGER OF BLEEDING GUMS

Medical science proves that healthy gums cause serious ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhea (a one of the gums) often suffer from rheumatism, such as the heart, nervous disorders, or a general weakness. These ill effects have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhea germ which breeds in pockets about the teeth.

Four out of five people over 40 have Pyorrhea. It begins with tender, bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germ. Guard your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For The Gums.

Forhan's For The Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—in time, and used consistently ordinary dentists cannot do it. Forhan's will keep the gums firm, healthy, the teeth white and clean. 50¢ and 60¢ tubes in Canada U.S. If your druggist cannot supply, send price to us direct and we will mail postpaid.

Constantinople Constantinople
Under Guard for P
Against the Entente.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger, Washington, Oct. 20.—Allied ships have put out from Constantinople to intercept Soviet naval vessels and merchant marine that are endeavoring to transport supplies and ammunition to Trebizond, according to news from the Near East today. Bolsheviks in Asia Minor are in need of supplies, it is reported, in hope to push their campaign far into the Near East and thence through Persia into India and the rest of Asia. This was the plan outlined at a ship conference and it was decided to keep the Near East and Trebizond and the Asia Minor.

To Aid Armenia.

It was reported today that some European powers are endeavoring at last to aid the Little Republic of Armenia which is battling against two branches of the Bolsheviks, one from Russia and the Turks. The effort of Allied powers to intercept Bolshevik fleet and engage it in Black Sea is reported to be a part of the new effort to aid Armenia. The effort of Allied powers to intercept Bolshevik fleet and engage it in Black Sea is reported to be a part of the new effort to aid Armenia.

Several arrests have been made in Constantinople and the movement of Soviet agents who were endeavoring to establish a foothold from which to challenge the authority of the British and French in Constantinople. The action between the British and French in the Near East is said not to be because of the commercial rivalry, but that it gives as one of the reasons the success of the Soviet agents in the Uprisings in Siberia.

Uprisings in Western Siberia against the Soviet authorities are reported from Harbin, and the movement is to be spreading with the advantage of the side of the anti-Bolsheviks. The defeat of the Soviet forces made easier by the withdrawal of troops from Western Siberia to the Far East and the Russian army, so by the dispatching of Chinese troops eastward with a possible intention of attacking Mongolia.
