

The subjects of Examination in 1846 will be—

I. FRESHMEN.

Homer, Iliad, Bb. xxi. to xxiv.	Euclid; Bb. I, II, III, IV, Def. v,
Sophocles, Œdipus Rex.	vi, & xi to prop. 21.
Lucian, Vit. Auct., Piscator, &	Algebra.
Quomodo Hist. conscribenda sit.	Plane Trigonometry, with Logs.
Virgil, Georg. I & IV, & Æn. VIII	Chemistry.
& IX.
Horace, Odes, Sat. and Epist.
Translation into Latin Prose.
Walker's Logic.
Paley's Nat. Theology.

Prizes of Books will be given in the following subjects :—

- Classics*—as above, with translation into Latin Verse.
- Mathematics*—as above.
- Natural Philosophy*—as above.
- Experimental Philosophy*—Heat, Electricity, and Meteorology.
- Logic*—as above, with Whately's Analyt. Outline and B. III.
- Evidences of Religion*—as above.
- Biblical Literature*—Sacred History, Chronology, and Geography; and Pentateuch in Septuagint.

II.—JUNIOR SOPHISTERS.

Æschylus, Prometheus.	Euclid, as before.
Æschines, adv. Ctesiphontem.	Algebra.
Demosthenes, de Coronâ.	Plane Trigonometry, with Logs
Juvenal, Sat. III, VII, VIII, X, XIII,	Statics.
& XIV.	Dynamics.
Cicero, pro Leg. Manil., pro	Hydrostatics.
Milone, in Catilin. I, II, III, IV,	Optics.
pro Archia, & pro Ligario.
Translation into Latin Prose.
Cicero, de Officiis.
Locke, Essay on the Human Understanding.
Whately's Rhetoric.
Paley's Evidences.

Prizes of Books will be given in the following subjects :—

- Classics*—as above, with Æschylus, Persæ; Persius, Sat. I, II, III, V, and VI; Cicero, Phil. II., and Translation into Latin Verse and Greek Prose.
- Mathematics (Pure & Mixed)*—as above, with Conic Sections, Differential & Integral Calculus, Analytical Geometry of Three Dimensions, and Analytical Statics.
- Metaphysics and Ethics*—as above.
- Rhetoric*—as above, with Composition in English Prose.
- Evidences of Religion*—as above.
- Biblical Literature*—Psalms, Isaiah, Daniel and Zechariah in Septuagint.