York Independent.

"Clear in thought, correct in expression, and cogent in argume—and oppeals—Halifax Chronicle.

"These addresses are briet, polyted, eminently practical. Mr. Elliot is well known in this community as an accomplished expounder of the Word of God, and with the gift of aying much in little much meaning, few words. This is the characteristic of these addresses which we most cordially columned to the thoughtful fader. We confess to be teminded by these brief and terse discourses of our dear old favourite, John Foster."—Presbyterian (Halifax) Witness)
