

This Number Contains: "The Makers of Modern Rome," by C. R. W. Biggar; "The Modern Theory of Evolution"—a Reply to Mr. Armour, by Gordon Waldron; "Dr. Rontgen's Great Discovery"; and Poems by George Frederick Scott and "Seraus." Leader: The Equanimity of Our Politicians.

VOL. XIII. No. 11.

$3 Per Annum.

FEBRUARY 7th, 1896.

Price 10 Cents.

THE WEEK

A JOURNAL FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

MACMILLAN & CO.'S NEW BOOKS.

THIRD EDITION NOW READY.

The Letters of Matthew Arnold. 1848-1888.

Collected and arranged by GEORGE W. E. RUSSELL. 2 vols., 12mo, cloth, $3.00. (Uniform with Matthew Arnold's Complete Works.)

"These two volumes constitute, from the point of view of literature, the most important publications of the season—or, for that matter of several seasons. The letters are so entirely in accord with the published works that they form a connecting link to bind them together, and they also supply the Key to them. As biography, these letters are a great and lasting interest; as literature, they will take their place beside 'Culture and Anarchy' and 'Essays in Criticism.'—The Outlook.

"These are the facts which people are most likely to read for themselves. It is the human interest which most of us care for most, and the disclosure of the man Arnold, will, as I said, have all the freshness of the unknown. There are not many good collections of English letters. These are among the best; they have both substance and charm, and they enrich the literature of two countries."—George W. Smalley, in the New York Herald.

A Sportsman and Naturalist in South Africa.

A Sumptuously Illustrated Book.

A Breath from the Veldt

By John Guille Millais, F.Z.S., Author of "Game Birds and Shooting Sketches." Illustrated with 13 superb Electro Etchings, 12 full-page Engravings, and upwards of one hundred Engravings in the Text. Imp. 4to, bound in buckram, $25.00 net.

"The most beautiful decorated piece of work that has yet been produced in England."
Daily Chronicle.

A Midsummer-Night's Dream.

By William Shakespeare. Beautifully illustrated with numerous full-page engravings. Illustrations in the Text and decorated borders by Robert Anning Bell. Edited, with an introduction, by Israel Gollancz. Small 4to, cloth extra, $2.00.

New Orleans—The Place and the People.

By GRACE KING, Author of "Monsieur Motte," "Jean Baptiste Le Moyne," etc. Profusely Illustrated by Frances E. Jones. Crown 8vo, cloth, $2.50.

CONTENTS—Chap. I. History of the Mississippi River. II. Colonization of Louisiana. III. Founding of New Orleans. IV. The Ursuline Sisters. V. Indian Troubles. VI. Cession to Spain. VII. Spanish Domination. VIII. Spanish Administration. IX. American Domination. X. The Baratarians. XI. The Glorious Eighth of January. XII. Ante-Bellum New Orleans. XIII. War. XIV. Convent of the Holy Family. XV. Conclusion.

New Novel by the author of 'Mr. Smith,' etc.

Frederick

By L. B. Salford, Author of "Baby's Grandmother," "The Mischief of Monica," etc. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

The Years that the Locust Hath Eaten

New Novel by Anne E. Holdsworth.
By Anne E. Holdsworth, Author of "Joanna Traill, Spinster," 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

Macmillan & Co., ⁶⁶ Fifth Avenue, New York

TORONTO: THE WEEK PUBLISHING COMPANY, LIMITED.

