

at St. Paul's Cath., London, Ont., 1874. For several yrs. he was Principal of Hellmuth Ladies' Coll., London, was Principal subsequently of Duferin Coll., same city. Since 1883 he has been rector of the Episcopal Ch., Avon, N. Y., where as in Can. he devotes his leisure to literary work. During the existence of the Brit. Am. Mag. (Tor., 1863-4) he was one of its constant contributors, and since then has written numerous essays, poems and articles on religious, literary and social subjects for the Am. and Eng. mags. Among these are: "The Pilbury Portfolio," a series of papers of the Spectator class, which have achieved a marked success. Of separate works Dr. D. is the author of the following: "The Cross Roads," an allegory (1856); "Songs by the Way" (1862); "Verses in memory of Bishop Mountain" (1863); "Songs of the Seasons" (1885); "A Nation's Thanksgiving: A Psalm of Praise" (1886); "Philip Hazlebrook; or, the Junior Curate," a story of English social and clerical life (1887); "Flossy; or, a Child of the People," a sequel to the above (1889); "The Craze of Christian Englehart," a tale for the times (1890); "Kindesliebe; a Poetical Romance" (1891); "Memorabilia of the Presidents of the United States" (1893); "A Four-leaved Clover" (1894); and "Songs of the Season" (1895). He is a D.D., of Kenyon Coll., Ohio; and m. Augusta, dau. of Rev. J. Balfour, B.D., Cheltenham, Eng.—The Rectory, Avon, N. Y.

"Has a happy faculty of drawing quiet characters, and his artistic work has a rare charm."—Buffalo Sunday News.

DART, The Rt. Rev. John, Ang. Bp. of New Westminster, was b. in Devonshire, Eng., 1837. Ed. there, he was ordained deacon, 1860, and priest, 1861, by the Bp. of Colombo. He subsequently entered at St. Mary's Hall, Oxford, graduating B.A., 1867, and M.A., 1871. He has held the following positions: Vice-Principal of St. Peter's Coll., Peterborough, Eng.; Warden of St.

Thomas' Theol. Coll., Colombo, Ceylon; Examining and Private Chaplain to the Bp. of Colombo; Presdt. of the Univ. of King's Coll., Windsor, N.S. and Canon of Halifax Cath. (1876-85); and Organizing Secy. of the S. P. G. for the diocese of Manchester. Selected by the Archbp. of Canterbury for the Bishopric of New Westminster, which had been made vacant by the death of Dr. Silletoe, he was consecrated in St. Paul's Cath., by the Archbp. of Canterbury and the Bishops of London and St. Alban's, June 29, 1895, and enthroned in his Cath., Nov. 20, same year. Bp. D. m. 1880, Frances Helen, dau. of Colin Campbell, of Weymouth, N.S., and is the father of 4 sons. He received the degree of D.C.L. from King's Coll., Windsor, 1877, and that of D.D., from Oxford Univ., 1895, and attended the Lambeth Conf., 1897.—Bishop's Court, New Westminster, B.C.

DARTNELL, His Honour George Henry Frewen, Co. Ct. Judge, is the s. of the late Edward T. Dartnell, a native of Limerick, Ire., who was for some yrs. Co. Atty. and Clk. of the Peace, Prescott and Russell, Ont., by his wife, Catherine Coote Flemmyng, of Dublin. B. in Limerick, Feb. 14, 1834, he was ed. in King Coll. Sch., London. Coming to Can., 1850, he was called to the Ont. bar, 1858. He was apptd. Master in Chancery, Whitby, Ont., Dec. 1858; Junior Judge of the Co. Ct. of Ont., Oct., 1873, and Senior Judge of do., Dec. 12, 1896. His Honour, who is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng., m. 1st, 1857, Maria Louisa, dau. of the late A. B. Hawke, Chief Emigrant Agent for Ont. (she d. 1870); and 2ndly, 1873, Caroline, dau. of G. C. Gross, Whitby. Mrs. D. is the author of a volume entitled, "Random Thoughts" (Tor., 1894).—Whitby, Ont.

DARTNELL, Major John George, retired officer, is the s. of the late Dr. George Russell Dartnell, Depty. Insp. Genl. of Army Hospitals, and formerly Surg. of the 1st Royals. B. in London, Ont., 1838,