

receive the verdicts of juries in vacation, on such days as the Court shall have appointed for that purpose; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Jury trial may be ordered to be had in any District.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Superior Court may, in its discretion, order the trial by jury in any civil case to be had in any district; and if such trial be ordered to be had in a district other than that in which the cause is pending, the record in the cause and the order for the trial shall be sent to the Prothonotary of the Court for the District in which the trial is ordered to be had; and thereupon all proceedings to trial and verdict shall be had in such district, as if the cause were pending there, and the verdict shall then be returned, with the record, to the Prothonotary of the District wherein the cause is pending, for judgment and all ulterior proceedings.

Jury trials may be had at Circuit Courts, when proper provisions shall be made.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That when and so soon as lists of jurors shall have been made out, and the requisite provisions of law in that behalf enacted, it shall be lawful for the Superior Court to order any trial by jury in a civil case to be had at any Circuit Court; and the Judge presiding at such trial shall receive the verdict of the jury and return the same into the Superior Court, to be by the said Court proceeded upon according to law.

Provision for facilitating the proceedings in suits, &c. brought in the remote districts.

XXXVI. And for facilitating the decision of cases pending in other Districts than those of Quebec or Montreal—Be it enacted,

That whenever any case, in any such District shall be ready for hearing upon the law or upon the fact, or both, or it shall become necessary to obtain any judgment or order which cannot be rendered or made by a Circuit Judge in such District, and for want of which the proceedings in the cause would be stayed;
